Items 1 & 2 pertain to all communities & programs

1. Citizenship/Immigration Status Requirements (excluding straight Rural Development (RD) properties)

Assisted housing is restricted to U.S. citizens or nationals and non-citizens who have eligible immigration status. All family members, regardless of age, must declare their citizenship or immigration status. Non-citizen applicants will be required to submit evidence of eligible immigration status at the time of application. If the evidence needed to support eligible immigration status is temporarily unavailable, the applicant may request an extension. Mixed tenant families may be eligible for prorated assistance. Applicants who hold a non-citizen student visa are ineligible for assistance, as are any non-citizen family members living with the student.

2. Social Security Number Requirements

Applicants must disclose and provide documentation of Social Security Numbers (SSN) for all family members prior to being moved in. This also applies to foster children and live-in aides. For newborns, the household will be given 90 days to provide the Social Security Card.

The Social Security Number requirements do not apply to:

1. Individuals who do not contend eligible immigration status

When applicants and residents are required to declare their citizenship status, the existing regulations pertaining to proration of assistance or screening for mixed families must continue to be followed.

In these instances, the owner will have each resident's Citizenship Declaration on file – whereby the individual did not contend eligible immigration status – to support exception to the requirements to disclose and provide verification of a Social Security Number.

2. Individuals age 62 or older as of January 31st, 2010, whose initial determination of eligibility was begun before January 31, 2010.

The eligibility date is based on the initial effective date of the form HUD – 50059 or from HUD – 50058, whichever is applicable.

Documentation that verifies the applicant's exemption status must be obtained from the owner of the property where the initial determination of eligibility was determined prior to January 31, 2010. The owner/agent must not accept a certification from the applicant stating they qualify for the exemption. This documentation must be retained in the resident file.

The exception status for these individuals is retained if the individual moves to a new assisted unit under any HUD assisted program or if there is a break in his or her participation in a HUD assisted program.

3. Student Requirements.

[ ] for RD/HUD

Student eligibility requirements apply to applicants enrolled at an institution of higher education who is 24 years of age or older effective December 31st of the current year, unless the applicant (student) who is living with his/her parents, is the one applying for Section 8 assistance.

A. A person with disabilities, as such term is defined in section 3(b) (3) (F) of the United States Housing act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437a (b) (3) (E) that was receiving Section 8 assistance as of November 30, 2005 is exempt from the student eligibility requirements.

B. If the applicant is not claimed as a dependent and meets at least one of the criteria from the following questions, they qualify:

- Have you established a household separate from parents or legal guardians for at least one year prior to application for occupancy?
- Were you an orphan or a ward of the court through the age of 18?
- Are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?
- Do you have legal dependents other than a spouse?
- Are you a graduate or professional student?
- Are you married?

C. If the applicant does not meet any criteria from the above questions; they must meet eligibility requirements for Section 8 assistance and their parents, individually or jointly, must be income eligible for Section 8 assistance.

Student Requirements for Tax Credits

The household understands if all members of a household become or are full time students, that the household is ineligible to occupy a unit at this community, even if the household becomes ineligible after the initial certification.

Exceptions to this student rule may be one of the following four exceptions: 1) The household members are married and have filed a joint tax return; 2) The household consists of a single parent with a dependent child (or children), and neither the parent nor the child (or children) is being claimed as a dependent by anyone else; 3) At least one household member gets welfare assistance through Title VI of the Social Security Act; or 4) At least one household member is enrolled in a federal, state, or local job training program.

Student Requirements for HOME

Refer to property manager for HOME student rule restrictions.

Student Requirements for Section 236

Must pay market rent (Jordan Park and RC Square)

4. Additional requirements

1. The apartment unit must be the sole residence of all household members and under no circumstance may any tenant benefit from more than one subsidy.
2. All family members who are 18 years of age or older will be required to sign consent and verification forms. All information reported by the family is subject to verification.
3. Applicants must agree to pay the rent required by the program under which they will receive assistance.
4. Household members may not be required to disclose gender for HUD programs.

Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) – HUD only

1. EIV is a web-based computer system containing employment and income information on individuals participating in HUD's rental assistance programs. This information assists HUD in making sure "the right benefits go to the right persons".

The Social Security Administration:

Social Security (SS) benefits
Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits
Dual Entitlement SS benefits

The Department of Health and Human Services (HSS) National Directory of New Hires (NDNH):

Wages
Unemployment compensation
New Hire (W-4)

The EIV system provides the owner and or manager of the property where you live with your income information and employment history. This information is used to meet HUD's requirements to independently verify your employment and /or income when you recertify for continued rental assistance. Property owners and managers are able to use the EIV system to determine if you:

- Correctly reported your income
- They will also be able to determine if you:
- Used a false social security number
  - Failed to report or under reported the income of a spouse or other household member
  - Receive rental assistance at another property.

Consent required to get information from EIV

When you sign form HUD-9887, Notice and Consent for the Release of Information, and form HUD-9887-A, applicant's/Tenant's Consent to the Release of Information, you are giving your consent for HUD and the property owner or manager to obtain information about you to verify your employment and/or income and determine your eligibility for HUD rental assistance. Your failure to sign the consent forms may result in the denial of assistance or termination of assisted housing benefits. Only you and those parties listed on the consent form HUD-9887 that you must sign have access to the information in EIV pertaining to you.

EIV – Existing Tenant Report

During the final eligibility review, there is one report available that provides information about “applicants”. This is the Existing Tenant Report. This report is used during the final eligibility interview. The EIV Existing Tenant Search is to be run on “All Household Members” when offering the unit, and is looking for multiple subsidy issues, at time of move in.

Screening for Receipt of Assistance for Applicant or Residents Residing in Another HUD Assisted Unit.

All Applicants MUST disclose if they are currently receiving HUD housing assistance. The owner/agent will not knowingly assist applicants who will maintain a residence in addition to the HUD-assisted unit.

HUD provides the owner/agent with information about an applicant's current status as a HUD housing assistance recipient. The owner/agent will use a report called the Existing Tenant Report provided through HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System (EIV) to determine if the applicant or any member of the applicant household is currently receiving HUD assistance.

Nothing prohibits a HUD housing assistance recipient from applying to this property. However, the applicant must move out of the current property and/or forfeit any voucher before HUD assistance on this property will begin. Special consideration applies to:

1. Minor children in joint custody arrangements where two or more “custodians” received HUD assistance.
2. Recipients of HUD assistance in another unit who are moving to establish a new household when other family/household members will remain in the original unit

There will be monthly reports produced and reviewed on a monthly basis pertaining to failed verifications, deceased tenants and new hires. Plus, reports will be generated to prepare for annual and interim recertifications. Also once a tenant has been moved in for a few months, a report will be processed to verify that income reported at move-in matches with EIV.

Violence Against Women Act – (VAWA)

Housing Notice: H 08-07 regarding the Violence Against Women Act – VAWA provides legal protections to victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. These protections prohibit owners/agents from evicting or terminating assistance under a project-based Section 8 program for the victim, if the grounds are in instance of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

The Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 protects qualified tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking (collectively “domestic violence”) from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them.

If you have been a victim of domestic violence, you or a family member on your behalf, must complete and submit this certification form, or submit the information described below under “Alternate Documentation,” which may be provided in lieu of the certification form, within 14 business days of receiving the written request for this certification form from the owner or management agent. The certification form or alternate documentation must be returned to the person and the address specified in the written request for the certification form. If the requested certification form or the information that may be provided in lieu of the certification form is not received by the 14th business day or any extension of the date provided by the owner or management agent, none of the protections afforded to victims of domestic violence under the Section 8 project-based assistance program will apply. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Income Eligibility Requirements

The property must maintain records that demonstrate all reasonable steps were taken to fill these units with extremely low-income tenants and must demonstrate that an ongoing effort to meet the 40% requirement is being made.
