ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

Norwich, CT continues to have a need for affordable housing according to the high percentage of low income persons in Norwich who are rent-burdened. The situation has been exacerbated by the recent expansion of two large Indian casinos (Foxwoods and Mohegan Sun), which are located within ten miles of Norwich. Therefore, during PHA Fiscal Year 2002, the Norwich Housing Authority (“Authority”) continued to concentrate its efforts in processing additional rental vouchers. The availability of such vouchers decreased the number of applicants for public housing. It is the Authority’s strategic goal for Fiscal Year 2003 to reduce public housing vacancies, by using rental vouchers in connection with said public housing vacancies. The Authority’s eligibility policies are designed to accommodate those who are in the greatest need of housing, while at the same time assuring that those income eligible applicants who are in a more stable housing situation have access to Norwich’s public housing. The Authority thoroughly screens all applicants, while enforcing the requirements of the lease.
