USING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF PORT HUENEME

18. RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD

A Resident Council was elected by adult recipients of PHA assistance. Prior to the first official meeting after the election, the vice-president gave notice that he would be vacating subsidized housing in order to move into a home he and his family had been able to purchase. Within days, the president gave notice that she had a job and other obligations that would preclude her from serving in her elected position. The PHA scheduled a meeting at which no one appeared. Consequently, the Resident Council disbanded.

Due to time constraints, the Agency moved forward with development of the PHA Plan. Residents were advised of public review/comment period and date of public hearing.

PHA held two resident meetings on April 13, the day prior to the public hearing. One meeting was held in the morning and one in the evening. Thirty-four residents attended the morning meeting and three families attended the evening meeting. The Agency Plan was reviewed at each meeting. There were no comments submitted.

PHA has already begun efforts to encourage resident participation in 2001 Annual Plan. As this collaboration between PHA and residents develops, any substantial changes in the 5 Year Plan will be reported to the Department of Housing and Urban Development.
