Attachment D: Resident Advisory Board Minutes

August 23, 2002

Meeting opened at 5:05PM with four members present: M. Noonan, E. Parker, M. Whitney and J. Dimitroff, and Vernon Kelley
Absent: M. Dimsmore.

Previous minutes were accepted as read, moved by Jon, second by Marjorie

Mary made a motion to nominate Marjorie as Secretary/Treasurer, Jon seconds.

Jon made a motion to nominate Mary as Chairperson for one year to date, Marjorie seconds.
Unanimous vote to approve.

Mary suggests that we go to Derry Housing and Redevelopment Authority (DHRA) meetings. She expresses a concern that they meet in a building that is big enough to hold people. This is important since it is an open meeting to the public. We will bring it up in writing to Wilma Willson, Chairperson (DHRA) to request that a larger meeting place to accommodate elderly and other interested community members be found.

Mary also asked for consensus of how the group feels about how the DHRA office personnel has treated our group. Our comments that we have always been treated with respect, as a group as well as individually. We agreed unanimously that we were more than pleased with competency and expertise of those in the office. A resounding verbal vote of confidence was given. Mary wanted this perspective having fielded comments from some community grumblers. Personally, as recording secretary of this RAB of DHRA, I have found their help to be invaluable. As we represent about 100 people, we felt that DHRA personnel should receive formal recognition.

Mary requests of Vern that yard sale material at 1 and 3 Peabody Rd Annex Apartments be removed. She questions how to get larger storage units for tenants. Vern will report.

Vern reports that he has received 20 new vouchers for Section 8 Housing. Vern also reports that the office requires more personnel to keep up with the ever-increasing workload and expanded housing needs. (I.e. DHRA now collects rents from several housing complexes).

Motion was made by Jon and seconded by Mary to hold meetings every other month. Approved.

Next meeting will be held Oct. 17 at 5:00PM at the DHRA office.

Respectfully submitted:

Marjorie Whitney
Recording Secretary.

Resident Advisory Board Minutes

October 3, 2002

Meeting called to order at 5:07PM, Present: Jon Dimitroff, Dolores Meo, Mary Noonan Absent: Natalie Dinsmore, Marjorie Whitney.

Vernon Kelley (DHRA Director) consented to take the minutes in the absence of Marjorie Whitney.

The membership was polled as to their experiences and comments about what is happening in town.

Jon asked about what is happening at Welfare. He has been refused to see paperwork. They said they would call the police if he didn't get out.

Mary reported that people are violating HUD regulations. For example, people living in a Section 8 Home who are not supposed to be there. If you have someone living with you, their income must be added.

Delores says that noone is helping her at Social Security. She feels that the system must be revised, that people cannot live on $321.00 a month. She has also been on a list for a handicapped unit. Says there are none available at Fairways. She was discriminated against since she has asked for 2 years.

Mary noted that lots of people are getting housing assistance that do not report income, plus the ones that live-in that are not allowed. There should be some way to screen these people out.

Jon, a building superintendent, says that often people move in and act ok for a month or so then become bothersome tenants and cannot be removed because they have a years lease.

Mary poses a question to HUD: How often is a check made to see if people are scamming the system?

General comments:

Jon says it takes $1400.00 a week to raise a family with 2 kids.

Everyone agreed that we were very grateful for housing (DHRA).

Delores feels that the US needs to take care of us, not the other countries. "My daughter cannot go to band because I do not have $400.00 for an instrument. I am living on $321.00 a month."
