Cherry Hill Township's Public Housing Agency is not governed by a Board of Directors, but by a Township Council. The Township Council is the legislative branch of Cherry Hill's government, setting policy through the enactment of Township ordinances and resolutions. These seven Council members are elected to four-year terms. All Council members serve as at-large representatives, representing the entire Township. Due to the election of these public officials, there has not been a Section 8 resident appointed to this governing body.
