Basis for Developing Project-Based Program

The Montgomery County rental market remains extremely tight, with vacancies of all properties at about two percent. Section 8 voucher holders continue to have difficulties in leasing up. HUD's recent approval of HOC's exception rent areas should help, although the County still has a shortage of affordable housing.

Project-basing some of its vouchers will help HOC reach its Plan goals of expanding affordable housing throughout the County.

June 16, 2003

Housing Opportunities Commission
10400 Detrick Avenue
Kensington, Maryland 20895

Dear Commissioners:

On behalf of the Resident Advisory Board (RAB) to the Housing Opportunities Commission, we are lending our support to the proposed revisions to the HOC Annual Plan.

At our meeting of May 19, 2003, the RAB was provided a briefing on the proposed revisions. It is our understanding that the revisions are primarily related to the proposed renovations to the Middlebrook Square community including needed budgetary changes. We fully support use of capital funds as a pledge to repay the bond issue to secure funds for this community. We urge the Commission's full support of this change as well.

It is our understanding that a hearing will be held on July 2, 2003 relative to the revisions. Please accept this letter as endorsement of the changes and include this letter as part of the hearing's record.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Yvonne Chaney-Harrison, President
