ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The County PHA's Plan for its Fiscal Year 2004 includes the following activities to address the housing needs of households in the county:

- Build enrollment in the Programs to achieve 100% utilization;
- Exceed the policy that 75% of new enrollments be at income level of 30% MFI or less;
- Assist families to locate units outside of poverty areas such as the Gardens section of Mount Holly, Sunbury Village in Pemberton Twp. and certain sections of Burlington City;
- Participate in educational programs to landlords to encourage their participation in the program;
- Participate with the Human Relations Commission in providing Fair Housing Education Programs in an effort to reduce discriminatory attitudes toward rental assistance recipients, minority groups, persons with disabilities and families with children;
- Coordinate with disabilities advocacy organizations to develop a means of identifying accessible rental units;
- Maintain full enrollment in the Family Self-Sufficiency Program;
- Assure that all units occupied by children under the age of six in the program are free of lead paint hazards;
- Promote program participation with owners of units that have three or more bedrooms to house large families.

The PHA has made great strides in increasing its enrollment, beginning the year with a total enrollment of 503 and increasing to 540 at the time this plan was written. The PHA lease-up percentage increased from 89% to 95% during that time period. The top two priorities of the PHA for fiscal year 2004 are to continue to increase enrollment, and to increase customer satisfaction by streamlining Recertification processes.

Westampton, NJ 08060

PRESENT: John H. Smith, Jr., PHA Coordinator; Eleanor Coleman, PHA Supervisor; Margie Stocks, and Ernestine Hankinson, Resident Members.

A draft of the PHA FY 2004 Annual Plan was distributed to the Board members. The purpose of the meeting was to review and discuss the draft and to obtain the Board's comments for development of the 2004 Plan. John H. Smith, Jr., Coordinator and Eleanor R. Coleman, PHA Supervisor, led discussion. An overview of the Plan was presented. Particular attention was given to Attachment A, the report of Progress in meeting the 5-Year Goals and Objectives during 2004. The following program concerns were presented to the membership for discussion:

The meeting opened at 5:40 P.M. and Ms. Coleman welcomed the Resident Advisory Board members and introduced the PHA's new Coordinator, John H. Smith, Jr., to the Resident Advisory Board.

The following Program concerns were presented to the membership for discussion:

◆ Waiting List

Resident Advisory Board Members requested information regarding the number of applicants remaining on the Waiting List.

At the PHA FY 2003 Resident Advisory Board Meeting, Members were concerned with the length of time applicants waited before being called in from the waiting list. Advisory Board Members recommended that the Waiting List be purged. Suggesting that purging would eliminate individuals who are no longer interested in the Program.

Ms. Coleman informed the Board that the Section 8 Waiting List had been purged as recommended. The Board was also advised that there were now, due to the purge, less than 500 applicants remaining on the Waiting List.

Members expressed satisfaction in the reduction of the number of applicants remaining on the waiting list as opposed to the number that were on the list at the time of the 2003 PHA Plan Resident Advisory meeting.

Ms. Stocks and Ms. Hankinson asked if the reduction in the Waiting List could have Also been the result of the mass briefings.

Ms. Coleman explained that the mass briefings were no longer being conducted and went on to explain that the entire staff was responsible for scheduling applicants from the Waiting List.

Ms. Stocks asked if applicants were eligible to move to areas outside of Burlington County.

Ms. Coleman briefed the Board on the availability of Portability to Participants, and the requirements that must be met prior to portability eligibility.

The Board offered no additional comments or suggestions regarding the Waiting List.

◆ Affirmative Action/Fair Housing/Housing Discrimination

Ms. Hankinson asked if individuals with physical or mental disabilities were eligible for the Section 8 Program

Ms. Coleman informed the Board that the individuals who face physical or mental challenges must meet eligibility requirements and are eligible for the Program even if they required a Live-In Aid. It was further explained that the key is for the individual to be able to live independently.

Ms. Stocks inquired whether Owners/Landlords had the right to deny housing to a based on them receiving Section 8.

Ms. Coleman briefed the Board that denial of housing based on source of income was a form of discrimination and is against the law. It was further explained to the Board that individuals who need assistance in filing a discrimination complaint are encouraged to contact the PHA for assistance.

Ms. Hankinson and Ms. Stocks were concerned about the negative opinions held by Landlords regarding the Section 8 Program and asked what was being done to promote the Program.

Mr. Smith, Coordinator briefed the Board on the PHA's on-going membership on the Human Relations Housing Committee. John Smith continued to inform the Board that all municipalities are being encouraged to promote fair housing. In addition, Mr. Smith expressed the PHA's willingness to take part in Fair Housing Educational Programs. The Human Relations Housing Committee did not conduct an educational program during FY 2003.

Eleanor Coleman distributed copies of the PHA's Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Guide along with the Tenant's Rights Booklet to the members. Ms. Coleman explained to the Board that the Guide gives participating landlords a reference and provides potential landlords with information about the Program. In addition, Ms. Coleman explained that the Tenant's Rights booklet provided Participants information regarding their rights as a tenant in New Jersey.

Eleanor Coleman continued by informing Members of New Jersey's State legislation that clearly prohibits discrimination by Landlords against Section 8 Participants.

Mr. Smith also described planned activities to promote the Section 8 Program to new landlords and increase services to existing landlords. These changes include a landlord information section on the PHA website and a computerized database of available units that landlords can post their vacant properties on.

Ms. Hankinson stated that these changes should help remove the stigma from the Section 8 Program and encourage more landlords to participate.

◆ Criminal Activity/Background Checks

Members voiced their concerns regarding criminal activity. The Members were interested in what steps the PHA is taking to prohibit participation of individuals with drug or criminal records.

Eleanor Coleman advised the Board that the PHA requires all applicants and their household members 18 years of age and older to complete a Criminal Background

Check. Applicants who do not agree to complete background check are not eligible for the Program. In addition, the Board was informed that drug related or violent criminal activity that has occurred within the last three years renders the applicant ineligible.

◆ Deconcentration

Ernestine Hankinson and Margie Stocks expressed concern in regards to the limited number of rental units available to Program Participants.

Eleanor Coleman explained that the PHA continues to encourage Participants to relocate to areas that do not have a high concentration of poverty. Ms. Coleman went on to explain the adoption of Payment Standards that are 110% of the Department of Housing & Urban Development's (HUD) published Fair Market Rents. It was explained that for areas considered high poverty concentration areas, HUD's published FMR is applied. For areas that have a low level of poverty concentration, the PHA's 110% Payment Standard is applied. The difference in the amount the PHA will subsidize has been adopted in order to encourage participants to relocate to low poverty areas.

◆ Housing Quality Standards (HQS)

Ernestine Hankinson questioned whether landlords who do not meet the program requirements are held responsible and if they could keep their units on the Program.

Eleanor Coleman informed the Board that landlords are under contract to abide by the Program's Policy and Guidelines. It was further explained that if landlords fail to abide by the established policies and guidelines, to include HUD's regulatory mandates, they become ineligible for participation on the Program.

John Smith briefed the members on the PHA's ongoing attempts to ensure that prospective and participating units do not have lead based paint. Mr. Smith also stated that the PHA is looking into the possibility of hosting a Lead Based Seminar that will be conducted by HUD at no cost to those who attend.

◆ Family Self-Sufficiency Program

John Smith briefed the Members on the progress of the Family Self-Sufficiency Program (FSS). Mr. Smith explained that the Program has 29 participating families and has met and exceeded the Program's minimum Program size of twenty-five participants. In addition, Mr. Smith explained that of the twenty-nine FSS Participants, twenty have established Escrow accounts.

The members were impressed by the accomplishments of the FSS Program.

◆ Homeownership

Margie Stocks inquired about HUD's Homeownership Program.

John Smith explained that due to the cost involved for the administration of a Homeownership Program, the PHA is currently unable to implement the Program. Mr. Smith also shared with the Board some of the barriers other PHAs are facing in their implementation of the Homeownership Program. Mr. Smith expressed that the PHA has not ruled out the possibility of implementing the Program in the future.

◆ Financial Overview

Mr. Smith gave the Resident Advisory Board members an overview of the PHA's financial resources, expenses, and Housing Assistance Payment status.

The Members gave no comments.

◆ FY 2003 Accomplishments

John Smith briefed the Board on the strides that have been made during the FY 2003 PHA Plan term.

The members were pleased to find out that the PHA has 95% of the number of units authorized (567) for HUD funding leased.

John Smith and Eleanor Coleman informed the Board that the PHA has exceed HUD's mandatory requirement that 75% of the families assisted must be at or below 30% of median.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 P.M.

PUBLIC HEARING

October 6, 2003 – 5:00 P.M.
Human Services Facility
2nd Floor Conference Room
795 Woodlane Road
Westampton, New Jersey 08060

PRESENT: John H. Smith, Jr., PHA Coordinator; Eleanor R. Coleman, PHA Supervisor; Hilarion Tumpag; Elisa C. Diaz; Mattie Jones; Doris Magee

The meeting opened at 5:30 P.M.

Eleanor Coleman explained the planning process and comments were requested on the process and on the Plan itself. The following comments were received on the Plan and planning process:

The Plan was not available on the County's website. The address that was advertised was "Under Construction".

The definition of homelessness is misleading as it does not take into consideration those families that are living with other families temporarily and only accounts for those families that are unsheltered or that are in emergency housing.

The Public Hearing is not well attended despite notification letters being sent to all Participants.

The definition of "family" is confusing and it is not clear that a family can consist of only one individual.

The use of preferences is confusing as it relates to the Waiting List and how or when applicants are selected from it.

The meeting was closed at 6:45 P.M. following a discussion of concerns presented by those in attendance that were not specifically related to the Plan.
