9. Additional Information

[24 CFR Part 903.12 (b), 903.7 (r)]

A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 - 2004.)

Goal 1: Increase the availability of decent, safe, and affordable housing. Orange County Housing applied for additional voucher under the 2000,2001 and 2002 Fair Share NOFAs and received 105 new vouchers for FY2000-2001. In 2001 we received 20 enhanced vouchers as Maitland Oaks opted-out. In partnership with Quest, we applied for Mainstream vouchers for the disabled in 2000, 2001 and 2002 but were not awarded any. In 2001 we applied for a Shelter Plus Care grant and was awarded a five year grant of $503,160. We applied for an additional Shelter Plus Care grant in 2003 and was awarded a five year grant of $741,960. This allows us to provide vouchers for 30 homeless households.

Orange County Housing in partnership with area banks, local non-profit organizations, realtors, title companies and local developers annually expend State Housing Initiative Partnership (SHIP) funds in the amount of $4,528,000, HOME and Community Development Block Grant (CDGB) funds in the amount of $2,144,000 and private funds for first mortgages from banks in the amount of $29,100,000 to assist hundred of qualified low and very low income families in obtaining affordable housing through the Down Payment Assistance Program and in building affordable multi-family rental units. Local non-profit agencies provide homebuyers education and counseling, post-purchase counseling and default counseling.

In 2002 we attained the rating of High Performer on our SEMAP score and have maintained it since that time. Based on customer satisfaction survey's, we have 70%-80% of our clients rating us as excellent.

In May 2001, we made a presentation at the Central Florida Realty Investors meeting to approximately 170 members. In 2001, 2002 and 2003 Orange County Housing and Orlando Housing Authority conducted joint landlord workshops to approximately 330 interested individuals. Orange County Housing offers bi-weekly briefings for new landlords interested in learning about Section 8. From October 2001 until March 23, 2005, approximately 1227 potential landlords or property managers have attended these briefings.

Goal 2: Promote self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted households. Orange County Housing began a Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) program in October 2000. To date we have had nine successful completions, five of which resulted in homeownership. We have assisted 20 FSS participants with educational grants and 13 of those have completed their schooling. Currently we have 42 FSS participants and 24 of them are employed.

Under the HOME Tenant Based Rental Assistance (TBRA) program we provide vouchers for the elderly, disabled and victims of domestic violence. We have interagency agreements with Quest, Inc. and Harbor House for them to provide on-going services to help their TBRA participants in increase their independence. Additionally, members of the Homeless Services Network of Central Florida provide services for Shelter Plus Care disabled participants to help them achieve and maintain independence.

Goal 3: Ensure equal opportunity and affirmatively further fair housing objectives. Orange County Housing hired a full-time Fair Housing Coordinator in January 2003. We have identified and analyzed impediments to fair housing through surveys, focus groups and analyzing mortgage data. We have a Fair Housing Plan that addresses how to overcome the impediments. We have participated in informational seminars, subsidized legal services, aired public service announcements on government access TV and collaborated with Alianza for Fair Housing, a local Fair Housing Assistance Program (FHAP).

Orange County Housing fosters partnerships with non-profit developers to increase the supply of affordable housing stock within Orange County. Such partnerships have fair housing parameters structured within the developer's agreements. In addition, Orange County funded multi-family projects are monitored on an annual basis for compliance with developer agreement conditions including equal opportunity and fair housing regulations. At such time, the tenant selection policies are reviewed.

Section 8 funding provides rental assistance to low income Orange County residents regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status or disability. Fair Housing is covered in both our landlord workshops and our landlord briefings. A fair housing pamphlet is given to each participant. Additionally, Section 8 participants may rent the unit of their choosing, however, inspections of the unit are conducted to ensure the units are suitable living environments.

Goal 4: Other PHA Goals and Objectives. Staff has received extensive training in various components of the program. In July 2001 Orange County Housing and Orlando Housing Authority jointly sponsored a 3-day Occupancy training conducted by Quadel for all case managers/housing assistants. Our HQS inspectors, quality control inspector and supervisor have all attended Nan McKay's HQS training and one inspector attended their Advanced Inspector Training. Our FSS coordinator and supervisor have attended Nan McKay's Family Self-Sufficiency Training and the FSS coordinator also attended Nan McKay's case management class. All our housing assistants, FSS Coordinator, three quality control auditors and the supervisor has attended Nan McKay's Rent Calculation class. Three housing assistants and the supervisor have attended Nan McKay's eligibility class. The Quality Control Auditor and supervisor attended Nan McKay's occupancy training. Additionally, the supervisor has also attended SEMAP training by Nelrod and Nan McKay, Homeownership Program training by Nan McKay, and various other training's offered by HUD, NAHRO and FAHRO. All staff has received customer service training. Tenant and landlord complaints are responded to on the same day they are received, although the resolution may take longer.

Orange County Housing has contracts with three organizations to provide homebuyer training and counseling. During the past five years 32 Section 8 participants that we know of have left the program because they have bought a home.

Section 8 applicants and portables are given information and maps during their briefing to encourage them to look outside high poverty, high crime areas for their housing needs. Additionally, inspection staff advise tenants when they choose a unit in a high poverty, high crime area when they do the initial inspection and ask if they are certain they want to live in the chosen area.
