The Auburn Housing Authority cites the following progress in achieving its previous goals and objectives during 2000-2004:

QUALITY HOUSING-MARKETABILITY

The AHA is an agency that is sought out by individuals seeking quality housing, particularly as quality relates to affordability in the community. The AHA has put internal control systems in-place to track maintenance repairs and to deal with code deficiencies promptly. Remedial repairs are an important part of the AHA's on-going activities to maintain quality housing.

POSITIVE LIVING ENVIRONMENT

The AHA has a clear connection to the senior community as evidenced by the Executive Director serving on the Council on Aging and the non-profit FAsca group, which encourage recreational and wellness programs. The AHA supports self-sufficiency by networking with appropriate agencies to ensure that elders are able to age in-place in a positive environment. The ARE YOU OK program provides an important computerized tie-in to the local police department to promote safety and wellness among the residents. The AHA works closely with tenants to assure that their needs are being addressed in a dignified manner. The AHA added a health/sun room during the last CFP funding cycle and this space allows interactive recreation through a variety of "get togethers" in an attractive, warm, sunny, and positive environment.

ACCOUNTABILITY-PUBLIC COMMITMENT

The AHA, through compliance with federal audits and various performance reporting criteria, has met the required performance standards and benchmarks established by HUD.

HOUSING NEEDS

The AHA has worked with the local Master Plan Committee in housing projections and in identifying housing trends and needs in the community.

- b. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan

Significant Amendment or Substantial Deviation/Modification to the Plan

- Other: (list below)

Statement of Consistency with Consolidated Plan

The Auburn Housing Authority (AHA) considers all of its programs and services to be consistent with the Consolidated Plan of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In its state and federal housing programs, the AHA serves 190 households of low-income, providing the following types of affordable housing: 60 units of federal elderly housing; 90 units of state elderly housing; 32 units of family housing; and 8 units of special needs housing. With the low-moderate income focus of the Consolidated Plan, the AHA plays a major role in its community by serving only extremely low, very low, and low income households and offers this housing to all major population groups—families, the elderly, and the disabled. The AHA works with local, state, and federal agencies on issues and programs affecting the low-income population it serves and will continue to do so in the future.

Furthermore, the lead agency for the Massachusetts' Consolidated Plan is the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD), which is also the state's lead agency for state-assisted public housing. Given that the AHA administers 130 units of state-assisted public housing, DHCD and the AHA are in regular contact on issues affecting housing for low-income households.

b. The Consolidated Plan of the jurisdiction supports the PHA Plan with the following actions and commitments: (describe below)

(4) (Reserved)

- Other (describe below:)

- c. Indicate the number of units and general location of units (e.g. eligible census tracts or smaller areas within eligible census tracts):
