[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Wyoming Housing Commission continues to work toward its mission of assisting families and individuals with obtaining safe, decent, and affordable housing. The Wyoming Housing Commission will concentrate much of its efforts in the upcoming year toward continuing to improve management operations while striving to meet the needs of the residents the Commission serves.

The biggest obstacle the agency faces in fulfilling the ideas expressed in the Capital Fund Program (CFP) is the funding. The Commission will also look for other resources to help it meet its plan for the improvements of the property. The improvements are needed to keep and attract residents to its developments. We face competition from other properties that have their own subsidized programs. They offer newer, better, and more convenient locations to their residents.

The Commission will also pursue the development of a 5(h) Homeownership Program. We currently have several families who have expressed an interest in purchasing their homes. The WHC does believe that homeownership is a desirable outcome for the families we serve.

The Wyoming Housing Commission will also strive to assist its families who receive assistance through the Housing Choice Voucher Program toward becoming self-sufficient. We will implement a Section 8 Homeownership program and it will be put into practice with the Family Self Sufficiency Program. The WHC will collaborate with other community resources and agencies to provide the greatest amount of support to these families.

The resident advisory Board consists of five persons – Debra Gross, Section 8; Clarisse Cortez, PH Family; Lourdes DelaPaz, PH Family; Kim Decker, PH Family; and Doris Haner, PH Sr/Dis. The last three persons listed showed for the first RAB meeting held on Friday, October 8, 2004. They agreed the plan looks good. Their concerns were voiced in the CFP plan.

Ms. DelaPaz's concerns were the yard care - other residents spewing trash, the condition of the bay windows, and speeding vehicles through the Waldon Woods development. She requested we look into speed bumps. That will be done.

Ms. Haner's recommendations were to have the speed bumps at Westwood Apartments repainted – it will be done in the spring and she requested decorative lights be put on the gazebo in the back of Westwood apartments. It was explained that we cannot run an electrical cord across the yard but could, perhaps, look into it when we have more funding.

Ms. Decker was concerned that her fence was coming down but it was explained that the fence was not the property of the Wyoming Housing Commission. She should check with her neighbors.

The RAB was sent the updates to the plan, including their comments. The second meeting was held on Monday, December 13, 2004. No one voiced any concerns about the plan. Each thought it was very complete and liked the noted use of the CFP grants.
