The Hazleton Housing Authority continues its designation as a high performing agency ,therefore it is authorized to submit a streamlined Public Housing Agency Plan.

Attached you will find comments from the Hazleton Association of Resident Councils who were consulted prior to the finalization of the plan, as well as a list of supporting documentation as required.

The Authority has implemented a Housing Choice Voucher Home ownership Program with our partner, Housing Development Corporation. We currently have eight families enrolled.

As of this writing we have applied for our second ROSS grant for the elderly Residents. The programs under this grant are extremely beneficial.

Through a partnership with a local drug prevention agency we have been able to provide programs for the youth residing in our family units. We have been able to keep a Head Start Program as well as a Family Literacy Program and a Police Sub-Station. All of these initiatives were previously funded through PHEDEP.

In the year 2005, we will strive to maintain the level of service we have continually provided in spite of budgetcuts and funding restraints.
