ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The HAH has taken steps through revision of its Admission & Continued Occupancy Policies/Procedures to attract and assist working families in becoming and remaining residents of its properties. Specifics steps included implementing local selection preferences for working families, allowing certain payroll expenses (FICA & Health Insurance withholdings) as deductions from income based rents, and reducing the ceiling/flat rent amounts to amount significantly below the Section 8 Fair Market Rent amounts. And in spite of the rising costs of renovating vacated apartments, HAH kept its security deposits at $200 per family. Additionally, it anticipates adding central air conditioning units to all family apartments during the spring/summer of 2000 funded from the FFY99 CIAP grant. During a future CIAP (or Capital Grant Program), HAH anticipates purchasing a strip of land adjacent to its high rise building (Project KY 77-2), to be developed into a parking lot for residents and their guests. The Community Room at the high rise will receive new furniture and a big screen TV. HAH will also do a significant amount of landscaping and beautification at both housing projects plus repairing/replacing and improving the propane gas system at all sites of Project KY 77-1. It is our goal to provide the best quality living environment for all at the most affordable rent levels possible and we think these efforts show that intent.
