[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

This plan is prepared to comply with new HUD regulations. It applies to the Office of Community Development in that it (OCD) administers a Section 8 Housing Assistance program. The OCD does not own or operate any "public housing" and as such has not included those section in this plan. Most public housing activities in East Baton Rouge Parish are administered by the Housing Authority of Baton Rouge and will be discussed in their PHA plan when it is submitted early next year. This plan is prepared only for the activities administered by the OCD that consist of it's Moderate Rehabilitation and New Construction programs. Waiting list information is contained in this plan for informational purposes but it should be noted that the waiting list is prepared for and maintained by the HA. The Plan restates the priorities assigned to various housing groups that were originally discussed in the 5 Year Consolidated Plan which remains the main source for information on housing programs administered by the OCD.
