This Administration has taken measures to expand the existing Project Based Program, so as to increase the stock of decent, safe and sanitary housing available for the needy people in this jurisdiction. On such matter, we selected four proposals for the development of project-based units for which three AHAP have been signed and construction has begun. These projects should be available for occupation by the end of the fiscal year.

This PHA is providing eligible participants the opportunity to acquire their own homes with the financial and counseling assistance of the Section 8 Homeownership Program. Interested and eligible participants have been identified and oriented, few of which are close to acquiring their first homes.

We will continue our approach on providing excellent customer service through each of our personnel and Customer Service Unit. This division provides a unique and personalized customer service by phone through a toll free number [1-866-SEC-OCHO] and for residents in the metropolitan area at 787.274.2416 and 2426. The “Customer Service Unit” receives any complaints and/or comments from our clients, and is in charge of assisting the situation until its final solution in the shortest possible time.

B. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA's strategy for addressing the housing needs of families on the PHA's public housing and Section 8 waiting lists IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency's reasons for choosing this strategy.

(1) Strategies

Need: Shortage of affordable housing for all eligible populations

Strategy 1. Maximize the number of affordable units available to the PHA within its current resources by:

Select all that apply

- Employ effective maintenance and management policies to minimize the number of public housing units off-line
- Reduce turnover time for vacated public housing units
- Reduce time to renovate public housing units
- Seek replacement of public housing units lost to the inventory through mixed finance development
- Seek replacement of public housing units lost to the inventory through section 8

- replacement housing resources
- Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by establishing payment standards that will enable families to rent throughout the jurisdiction
- Undertake measures to ensure access to affordable housing among families assisted by the PHA, regardless of unit size required
- Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by marketing the program to owners, particularly those outside of areas of minority and poverty concentration
- Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by effectively screening Section 8 applicants to increase owner acceptance of program
- Participate in the Consolidated Plan development process to ensure coordination with broader community strategies
- Other (list below)

A market study is been conducted by a consultant for the PRDH in order to identify the rents for this jurisdiction market. Our payment standard is established according to the availability of funds for this fiscal year in 100% of the fair market rent.

Announcements has been and will continue to be published inviting housing owners to offer their units to Section 8 participants, providing prompt rent payments and the assurance that the tenants will take good care of their properties.

The Administration for the Revitalization of Communities signed several AHAP for the new construction and rehabilitation of project based developments for the elderly in order to expand the existing Project Based Program and by this matter increase the stock of decent, safe and sanitary housing to our applicants and participants that need better houses. We will also announce the availability of an additional 600 vouchers for the development of new construction or rehabilitation of some project based protects.

Strategy 2: Increase the number of affordable housing units by:

Select all that apply

- Apply for additional section 8 units should they become available
- Leverage affordable housing resources in the community through the creation of mixed - finance housing
- Pursue housing resources other than public housing or Section 8 tenant-based assistance.
- Other: (list below)

The PHA has started action to expand the project-based program from 292 to 479 units. An additional 600 voucher will be assigned for the rehabilitation and new construction of more project based projects.

Affordable housing units are available through special funding from the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for housing subsidy for elderly families and women victims of domestic violence.

- This PHA works over a centralized data that used to be divided by regional office. This allows central office personnel a more effective way to monitor actions AND HAS ALLOW IMPROVEMENT IN Portabilities billing procedures. It also permits better reporting methods.
- This PHA recently retrained all personnel on the software use for the Program in order to achieve excellence in the MTCS monthly transmission.

SECTION 8
PHA Project-Based Voucher

- This Public Housing Agency will expand our Project Based program during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006 to 187 additional units.
- This PHA has also requested additional proposals for the development of new construction or rehabilitation of 600 additional units for the elderly.
- The assistance through Project-Based vouchers is one of our strategies to provide decent, safe and sanitary units to our applicants considering the shortage of supply of units especially in the metropolitan, central and south areas of the Island of Puerto Rico.
- The assistance through Project-Based vouchers will also expand the location of availability of units outside areas of poverty and minorities concentration.

Section 8 Homeownership Capacity Statement

This PHA has implemented the Section 8 homeownership program as a means to provide participants with the opportunity to own their own homes through the Housing Choice Voucher Program. This PHA considers that it has the capacity to successfully operate a Section 8 homeownership program based on the following:

1. Most housing voucher participants dream about and are willing to own their homes.
2. The PHA started its homeownership program by inviting for initial orientation 100 eligible families. The PHA has over 800 families that are preliminary eligible to participate in the homeownership program because they meet the income requirements of the program.
3. This PHA has adopted the following requirements:
  - a) require that participants identify at least a minimum amount funds to provide for the initial financing cost;
  - b) meet HUD financing requirements.
4. To meet HUD financing requirements, the PHA has the following financial resources available:
  - The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico has established the Authority for the Housing Financing of Puerto Rico, which offers various opportunities to families willing to purchase their homes. This Authority is located in the same building of the Department of Housing. Families have different options; there is a program called “La Llave para tu Hogar” where the family may be assigned from $3,000 to $15,000 for the initial costs of financing their first home. The HA also offers opportunities to acquire units on projects qualified under the HOME program.

Families with disabled members certified by the Ombudsman for Disabled Persons may acquire loans for the construction of their homes with the necessary accesses or facilities.

Families in any municipality of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico can participate in the Authority’s programs. The Authority also offers their own loans or through private financing institutions. Closing costs of loans processed through the Authority are lower than for loans processed through private financing. Interests on the loans are competitive and the families have up to 30 years to pay.

The above actions have been taken considering the high prices of houses in Puerto Rico and, that most of our participants have low income. However, private financing institutions are also willing to participate in the program.

- There are many agencies that are available to provide our clients with all required counseling.
- The PHA has capable employees who have been provided with training to successfully manage the Homeownership Program.
- This PHA is working as team with other governmental and the private sector to create various “One Stop Center” office, in which all our clients will be assisted throughout the entire process of acquire their first home.
