9. Additional Information

[24 CFR Part 903.12 (b), 903.7 (r)]

A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 - 2004.

Progress on Agency 5-year Plan 2000-2004

The RCHA has fulfilled nearly all of its goals created in 2000.

1. Improve SEMAP Score

The SEMAP score is now 100%. The RCHA was legally overleased when it was acceptable. The RCHA applied for and received 50 fair-share vouchers in 2001 and 60 in 2002. The latter were leased up by the deadline of December 2003 and brought the agency to 100% lease-up rate. A new system to track HQS inspections was implemented. All certificates were changed to the new vouchers. Tenants receive letters about fraud every year. Staff follow up on every report to the degree possible and have terminated assistance when justified. Repayment plans are in place for two tenants and one former landlord. We did not ask for a higher admin fee during this period based on serving a multi-county area.

2. Create New Housing Options

New housing options have been created through a partnership with the Woodlands Development Group, a community based non-profit group. The RCHA has developed a total of six houses for the CHDO and 20 rental units. In addition the YouthBuild program has built 8 rental units for the RCHA in the past two years. A public informational meeting to attract new landlords occurs annually. Senior staff have attended meetings and researched possible ways to implement an assisted housing program. This is still being studied.

3. Encourage Home Ownership among Voucher Holders

A Voucher Homeownership Program was implemented in cooperation with a local non-profit called the Homeownership Center. So far two families have purchased homes and two or three more are expected to buy by the end of the year.

4. Continue and Improve YouthBuild Program

YouthBuild continues to serve at-risk young people. For two years, YB was able to secure state WIA funds which allowed other components like entrepreneurship education to be added to the program. These funds were not awarded in 2004. Funds were secured to develop a Community Technology Center at the YouthBuild site. The trainees now have access to state-of-the-art technology and computer training with the help of ARC funds and VISTA, the center is open to the public several hours a week. YouthBuild has a permanent home about 3 blocks from the main office.

5. Actively Support Job Training Activities

The RCHA has sponsored other job training activities by sponsoring two lead abatement seminars for worker and supervisor certification. The RCHA has signed agreements with DHHR to do training for their clients who work for their check. About once a year, the RCHA hires a YB graduate to work on the building crew. This builds on their YB experience and gives them good references to go on to other employment at a higher pay. A new job training site was implemented in 2003 in an RCHA facility—a coffee shop and restaurant where YB trainees learn about cooking, food service & hospitality and entrepreneurship as part of their educational experience.

6. Promote Housing Preservation Activities

Two home repair programs were conducted during this time. One used USDA Housing Preservation Funds and one used HUD's RHED funds. A total of 22 families were served.

7. Support the HomeOwnership Center in implementing their business Plan

The RCHA continues to support the HomeOwnership Center financially(through the sale of houses) and with technical assistance. The RCHA has helped to build capacity in the HOC as well as the Woodlands Development Group, by administering a USDA Rural Community Development Initiative Grant (RCDI) that allowed for additional training and technology upgrades.

8. Assist with HOC Goals

The RCHA assisted the non-profit HomeOwnership Center Inc. to become a NeighborWorks organization. A full-time director was hired. The staff now consists of 3.5 FTEs. Marketing activities have become more creative and diversified. The Home Safety Fair is a big hit every year. Last year they helped 49 families to buy a home. All received 8 hours of homebuyer education and an additional 200 families received initial budget counseling.

9. Increase Productivity and Cost Effectiveness of the RCHA Construction Crew

The Housing Development Crew and the YouthBuild Crew build about eight units a year. The remaining two units that were projected were contingent on using modular construction. Changeover in staff delayed that possibility, but it is on track for happening in the future. The agency has begun to do job costing on each house and will use this information to analyze costs.

Staff has been exposed to various training opportunities, and this needs to continue.

The historical building on the grounds of the RCHA has been restored and is the new site of the HomeOwnership Center and the Highland Café' the entrepreneurship model for YouthBuild. This work was bid out to sub contractors so as to not interrupt the construction pace of the RCHA crew.

10. Continue Active Memberships and Partnerships with Other Groups.

The RCHA senior staff are involved in the following organizations:

West Virginia Association of Housing Agencies
West Virginia Affordable Housing Partnership
CommunityWorks in WV
Federation of Appalachian Housing Enterprises
HomeOwnership Center Inc.
Woodlands Development Group
NeighborWorks Rural Initiative
National NeighborWorks Association
Fannie Mae Advisory Committee on Single Family Housing
West Virginia Housing Development Fund HOME Advisory Council

11. Continue Support of Local Community Housing and Economic Development Efforts

The RCHA has worked with a local CDC on the revitalization efforts going on in the the tiny town of Montrose. The RCHA is the fiscal agent for state grants to the CDC for the preservation and redevelopment of the historic railroad hotel in the county seat of Elkins.

The RCHA sponsors Woodlands Development Group which is a CHDO for the purpose of receiving HOME funds.

12. Conduct More Research and Assessment of Housing Needs and Future Activities

Research continues on identifying concentrations of housing problems and funding sources. The RCHA has been received into LISC, a national intermediary organization which will supply funds for a planning position.
