☐ Attached at Attachment (File name)

☒ Provided below:

The Pineville Housing Authority has a resident advisory board but has found that with our elderly clientele, it is more effective to get feedback and suggestions from all residents. Therefore, we hold monthly covered dish luncheons and quarterly resident meetings. We distribute monthly calendars and periodic newsletters sharing information with our residents. On a daily basis, residents approach us with suggestions, comments, etc. On several occasions, we discussed the consolidated plan with our residents. Their recommendations helped management complete the Action Plan Tables. Their suggestions include items pertaining to the units – new ranges, refrigerators, replacement of windows, doors, cabinets, sinks, etc. Rejected suggestions include covered parking and providing personal services (repair television, shop for furniture, delivery service, etc.) Based on recent resident suggestions, we have installed a beauty shop, exercise room, re-decorated community areas, and are in the process of constructing walking trails and fishing pond.

Although our conversations may not be well documented, communication and feedback from our residents is very important to us. I think this is reflected in the high scores we received from the resident questionnaire sent out by REAC.
