In order to be eligible for continued occupancy, each adult family member must either (1) contribute eight hours per month of community service (not including political activities) within the community in which the public housing development is located, or (2) participate in an economic self-sufficiency program unless they are exempt from this requirement.

9. NOTIFICATION OF THE REQUIREMENT

The Gallatin Housing Authority shall identify all adult family members who are apparently not exempt from the community service requirement.

The Gallatin Housing Authority shall notify all such family members of the community service requirement and of the categories of individuals who are exempt from the requirement. The notification will provide the opportunity for family members to claim and explain an exempt status. The Gallatin Housing Authority shall verify such claims.

The notification will advise families that their community service obligation will begin upon the effective date of their first annual reexamination on or after 10/1/99. For family's paying a flat rent, the obligation begins on the date their annual reexamination would have been effective had an annual reexamination taken place. It will also advise them that failure to comply with the community service requirement will result in ineligibility for continued occupancy at the time of any subsequent annual reexamination.

10. VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITES

Community service includes performing work or duties in the public benefit that serve to improve the quality of life and/or enhance resident self-sufficiency, and/or increase the self-responsibility of the resident within the community.

An economic self-sufficiency program is one that is designed to encourage, assist, train or facilitate the economic independence of participants and their families or to provide work for participants. These programs may include programs for job training, work placement, basic skills training, education, English proficiency, work fare, financial or household management, apprenticeship, and any program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health treatment.)

The Gallatin Housing Authority will coordinate with social service agencies, local schools, and the Human Resources Office in identifying a list of volunteer community service positions.

Together with the resident advisory councils, the Gallatin Housing Authority may create volunteer positions such as hall monitoring, litter patrols, and supervising and record keeping for volunteers.

11. THE PROCESS

At the first annual reexamination on or after October 1, 1999, and each annual reexamination thereafter, the Gallatin Housing Authority will do the following:

Section 9 Provide a list of volunteer opportunities to the family members.

Section 10 Provide information about obtaining suitable volunteer positions.

Section 11 Provide a volunteer time sheet to the family member. Instructions for the time sheet require the individual to complete the form and have a supervisor date and sign for each period of work.

Section 12 Assign family members to a volunteer coordinator who will assist the family members in identifying appropriate volunteer positions and in meeting their responsibilities. The volunteer coordinator will track the family member's progress monthly and meet with the family member as needed to best encourage compliance.

Section 13 Thirty (30) days before the family's next lease anniversary date, the volunteer coordinator will advise the Gallatin Housing Authority whether each applicable adult family member is in compliance with the community service requirement.

1. NOTIFICATION OF NON-COMPLIANCE WITH COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENT

The Gallatin Housing Authority will notify any family found to be in non-compliance of the following:

Section 14 The family member(s) has been determined to be in non-compliance;

Section 15 That the determination is subject to the grievance procedure; and

Section 16 That, unless the family member(s) enter into an agreement to comply, the lease will not be renewed or will be terminated.

1. OPPORTUNITY FOR CURE

The Gallatin Housing Authority will offer the family member(s) the opportunity to enter into an agreement prior to the anniversary of the lease. The agreement shall state that the family member(s) agrees to enter into an economic self-sufficiency program or agrees to contribute to community service for as many hours as needed to comply with the requirement over the past 12-month period. The cure shall occur over the 12-month period beginning with the date of the agreement and the resident shall at the same time stay current with that year's community service requirement. The first hours a resident earns goes toward the current commitment until the current year's commitment is made.

The volunteer coordinator will assist the family member in identifying volunteer opportunities and will track compliance on a monthly basis.

If any applicable family member does not accept the terms of the agreement, does not fulfill their obligation to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program, or falls behind in their obligation under the agreement to perform community service by more than three (3) hours after three (3) months, the Gallatin Housing Authority shall take action to terminate the lease.

ATTACHMENT A – DECONCENTRATION POLICY

10.4 DECONCENTRATION POLICY

It is Gallatin Housing Authority's policy to provide for deconcentration of poverty and encourage income mixing by bringing higher income families into lower income developments and lower income families into higher income developments. Toward this end, we will skip families on the waiting list to reach other families with a lower or higher income. We will accomplish this in a uniform and non-discriminating manner.

The Gallatin Housing Authority will affirmatively market our housing to all eligible income groups. Lower income residents will not be steered toward lower income developments and higher income people will not be steered toward higher income developments.

Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, we will analyze the income levels of families residing in each of our developments, the income level of census tracts in which our developments are located, and the income levels of the families on the waiting list. Based on this analysis, we will determine the level of marketing strategies and deconcentration incentives to implement.

10.5 DECONCENTRATION INCENTIVES

The Gallatin Housing Authority may offer one or more incentives to encourage applicant families whose income classification would help to meet the deconcentration goals of a particular development.

Various incentives may be used at different times, or under different conditions, but will always be provided in a consistent and nondiscriminatory manner.

ATTACHMENT F – STATEMENT OF PROGRESS IN MEETING THE 5-YEAR PLAN MISSION AND GOALS

STATEMENT OF PROGRESS

Gallatin Housing Authority continues to track the goals and objectives enumerated in its 5-year plan as implemented through its Annual Plan. Milestones set forth under plan objectives continue to appear reasonable in light of progress made to date both as that progress pertains to physical improvements and as that progress pertains to resident empowerment. A particularly troublesome matter continues to revolve around the lack of resident participation within our resident council. Despite this Agency's extended efforts to encourage participation by distributing flyers, making automated reminder phone calls for meetings, "meeting and greeting" tenants in their neighborhoods to personally invite them to meetings, and including an article in our monthly newsletter dedicated to informing and sparking interest in the council and meetings, few have elected to participate. Emphasis will continue to be focused on development and support of a competent Gallatin Housing Authority Resident Council.
