Housing Authority of the City of Long Beach
Summary of Five year Plan for Fiscal Years 2007 – 2011
And
Annual Plan for 2008

The mission of the Long Beach Housing Authority is to provide high quality housing assistance for Long Beach's low-income households through:

- Effectively and efficiently utilizing resources.
- Promoting a positive image through excellent customer service and clear and open communication.
- Continually educating staff and clients.

Within the scope of the Housing Authority's mission, specific goals have been established:

- The Housing Authority will continue to apply for additional vouchers whenever the opportunity is presented.
- The Housing Authority will continue to improve management to better service customers.
- The Housing Authority will continue to reach out to additional property owners.
- The Housing Authority will continue to promote self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted households.

There is a great need for housing assistance in Long Beach. As of the 2000 census, and as reported in the City's Consolidated Plan, households in Long Beach earned a median household income of $37,270 (well below the $42,189 median income for Los Angeles County). In fact, one third of Long Beach households earned less than $25,000 and nearly two-thirds earned less than $50,000. Sixteen percent of all Long Beach households are considered extremely low-income, or at 30 percent of the area median income or less.

Housing affordability is a serious issue. Only ten percent of Long Beach households earn the level of income necessary to purchase the median priced home. Additionally, even rental housing is unaffordable for many Long Beach residents, thus causing families to double up in small, inadequate units. According to the City's Consolidated Plan, in order to afford the average monthly rent of $795 for a one-bedroom apartment plus utilities, a household needs to earn at least $33,800 a year.

The Housing Authority's waiting list was opened in May 2003, and there are still more than 13,000 families on the list.

The Housing Authority intends to address these needs utilizing the following strategies:

- Maximizing the number of affordable units available by establishing payment standards that will enable families to rent in as broad a market area as possible. However, this need must be balanced by controlling costs so as to serve the maximum number of families.
- Marketing the program to landlords to make the program acceptable to them.
- Within means available, providing counseling to the extremely low-income applicants who have a difficult time finding affordable housing, even with their voucher.

Furthermore, the Housing Authority attempts to address the needs of certain segments of the local population by having adopted certain preferences for selection from the waiting list:

- Veterans and veterans' family members.
- Families unable to work because of age or disability.
- Those who live or work in the City of Long Beach.

The Housing Authority will continue to explore and pursue a Section 8 homeownership option, keeping in mind the very high cost ownership, and the very limited incomes of our participants.

The Housing Authority of the City of Long Beach has successfully made progress towards achieving the goals and objectives outlined in the 2006-2010 Five Year Plan, while serving as many low-income families possible. The number of vouchers allocated to the Housing Authority has increased with the addition of vouchers provided to affected families and continued assistance to victims of Hurricane Katrina. HACLB's homeownership program has seen two more families transition to homeownership this year, with others planning to move before the year is out. Landlords in the community are pleased to work with us, and we hold quarterly owner orientations to promote new owner participation and understanding/awareness of the Section 8 program. Our anti-fraud program has become evermore successful with terminations for those tenants not abiding by program regulations, and with prosecutions for cases where HACLB suffered significant financial loss.

(3) PHA Statement of Consistency with the Consolidated Plan

For each applicable Consolidated Plan, make the following statement (copy questions as many times as necessary).

Consolidated Plan jurisdiction: (provide name here)

a. The PHA has taken the following steps to ensure consistency of this PHA Plan with the Consolidated Plan for the jurisdiction: (select all that apply):

- The PHA has based its statement of needs of families on its waiting list on the needs expressed in the Consolidated Plan/s.

Use this section to provide any additional information requested by HUD.

10. Project-Based Voucher Program

a.  Yes  No: Does the PHA plan to “project-base” any tenant-based Section 8 vouchers in the coming year? If yes, answer the following questions.

b.  Yes  No: Are there circumstances indicating that the project basing of the units, rather than tenant-basing of the same amount of assistance is an appropriate option?

If yes, check which circumstances apply:

Low utilization rate for vouchers due to lack of suitable rental units

Access to neighborhoods outside of high poverty areas

Other (describe below:)

Because developers of affordable housing are able to include rent from project-based units in their projected income stream, project-based vouchers can be a tool for the development of additional affordable housing. New affordable housing can be created without jeopardizing tenant-based vouchers.

c. Indicate the number of units and general location of units (e.g. eligible census tracts or smaller areas within eligible census tracts):

HACLB would project base up to no more than 100 vouchers on a city-wide basis.
