CHAPTER 25

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) PROCEDURES

[HUD Form 50066]

INTRODUCTION

The signing of the Violence Against Women Act mandates that Housing Commissions provide applicants and participants, who claim to be victims of Domestic Violence, certain rights. No applicant shall be denied admittance to the Kent County Housing Choice Voucher Program or to Public Housing, when the sole reason for the denial was a direct result of the person being a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

The Kent County Housing Commission ((KCHC) shall not terminate the tenancy or assistance of any person when the sole reason for the termination was a direct result of the person being a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

Certification Criteria

If an individual claims to be a victim and is requesting any special consideration, she must provide the Kent County Housing Commission with a written request for the certification. Upon receipt of the request the KCHC staff must provide the requestor HUD form 50066 within two (2) business days with an instruction cover letter. The letter must state the due date and any other documents that may be needed to support the claim. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, court records; a statement from a professional who has first hand knowledge of the situation, such as a social worker, attorney or doctor; or police reports. The certification must be returned to the KCHC within 14 business days from the time it was sent, unless the person has requested and is granted an extension. If the person does not submit the certification in the time frame specified (including an extension) none of the protections afforded to victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking shall apply.

HUD form 50066 has been developed to allow persons to certify themselves as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

1. The person must declare herself as a “bona fide” victim as defined and described in the VAWA.
2. The person must identify the perpetrator.

The Kent County Housing Commission will evaluate each claim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking on a case-by-case basis. Any claim shall be given the full attention of the Housing Commission. Persons who make false claims of victim status may be subject to termination from the program for providing false information to the Commission.
