Streamlined 5-Year/Annual Version

This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief to certain PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. Information in PHA plans is publicly available.

B. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA's strategy for addressing the housing needs of families on the PHA's public housing and Section 8 waiting lists IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency's reasons for choosing this strategy.

(1) Strategies

Select all that apply

Need: Shortage of affordable housing for all eligible populations

Strategy 1. Maximize the number of affordable units available to the PHA within its current resources by:

	11.
\boxtimes	Employ effective maintenance and management policies to minimize the number of public housing units off-line
\boxtimes	Reduce turnover time for vacated public housing units
	Reduce time to renovate public housing units
	Seek replacement of public housing units lost to the inventory through mixed finance development
\boxtimes	Seek replacement of public housing units lost to the inventory through section 8 replacement housing resources \boxtimes	Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by establishing payment standards that will enable families to rent throughout the jurisdiction Undertake measures to ensure access to affordable housing among families assisted by the PHA, regardless of unit size required \boxtimes	Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by marketing the program to owners, particularly those outside of areas of minority and poverty concentration \boxtimes	Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by effectively screening Section 8 applicants to increase owner acceptance of program \boxtimes	Participate in the Consolidated Plan development process to ensure coordination with broader community strategies
	Other (list below)

Strategy 2: Increase the number of affordable housing units by:

(3) Capacity of the PHA to Administer a Section 8 Homeownership Program

a. Establishing a minimum homeowner downpayment requirement of at least 3 percent of purchase price and requiring that at least 1 percent of the purchase price comes from the family's resources.
b. Requiring that financing for purchase of a home under its Section 8 homeownership will be provided, insured or guaranteed by the state or Federal government; comply with secondary mortgage market underwriting requirements; or comply with generally accepted private sector underwriting standards.
c. Partnering with a qualified agency or agencies to administer the program (list name(s) and years of experience below).

Consumer Credit Counseling Service (CCCS) established in 1971, is a division of Family Service of the Piedmont, accredited by the Counsel on Accreditation, a member of the National Foundation for Credit Counseling, and a HUD Certified Housing Counseling Agency. CCCS has over 30 years of experience providing financial education and counseling to the Greater Greensboro community. CCCS provides a facilitator to conduct the eight-week evening financial literacy class.

A.J. Financial Group, LLC, conducts financial literacy classes and provides money management counseling in group and individual settings. The two founders have been in the banking industry for over 20 years and conducted these types of workshops for First Charter Bank.

Their client list includes Charlotte Housing Authority, Charlotte Urban League, Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools, Nations Ford Community Church, University Park Baptist Church, and Winston Salem State University, and North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. A.J. provides facilitation for the eight-week Saturday financial literacy class.

Greensboro Housing Coalition (GHC) is a referral, informational, and educational organization dedicated to giving information about:

• Where to find emergency shelter, rental housing, or housing with support services.

- What to do when you are about to be evicted or face foreclosure.
- How to get legal help if you face housing discrimination.
- How to get your landlord to make repairs.
- How to buy your first home.
- Where to get help with housing expenses in a crisis.

GHC provides a facilitator to conduct the eight-hour homebuyer education classes.

MB Housing and Associates provides post purchase counseling and workshops, in both group and individual settings, for new homeowners. Their curriculum includes New Strategies for Managing Debt and Managing Your Home Budget, Home Maintenance and When to Refinance. They have conducted workshops for GHA for the past two years, for the City of Greensboro and for many families in Greensboro. MB Housing facilitates the four-hour post purchase workshops.

Mutual Community Savings Bank is a local minority owned bank in the community. They provide qualified homeownership participants with Individual Development Savings Accounts and waive the administrative fee.

d. Demonstrating that it has other relevant experience (list experience below).

Greensboro Housing Authority implemented the Section 8 homeownership program in 2002. The program has grown from just over 100 participants to 340 participants. With two to three families closing each month, GHA has assisted 59 families purchase their homes, to date. Based on HUD's monthly report, this is more than any agency with this program in North Carolina. There are eight eight-hour financial literacy classes held each year with an average of 20 people completing the class. More than 100 people joined the program in 2006 and 23 purchased homes in the same year. The program received the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) Award of Merit.

The Homeownership Coordinator has been certified to teach homebuyer education and in homeownership counseling. She received certificates in Financial Literacy, Residential Lending, and Managing a Successful Homeownership program. The coordinator has trained several other housing authority staff members on the implementation and development of the program.
