ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority has prepared its annual plan of action to complement both existing activities and to prepare to implement the new initiatives outlined in the 5 Year Plan and the mission statement of the Authority.

Certain of these activities involve the collection, inspection, revision and submission of the Authority's various policies, approaches and procedures to make for a more open and efficient operation.

The Authority will continue with its capital improvement program modernizing its elderly and family facilities and will be developing scattered site housing for inclusion in the existing homeownership program. The completed units are in the process of being marketed and sold. The mixed financing development of the Bunker Hill (South Adams Street) is completed and is being marketed to eligible homebuyers and the Wythe Row tax credit housing has been completed and is fully occupied. A second tax credit project has been completed and is fully occupied. The Cedar Lawn HOPE I program is completed and is currently being marketed.

In areas of resident initiatives, the Authority will continue to work closely with existing resident councils to make conditions better in the developments and help them secure funding for independent activities. Also, the Family Self-Sufficiency Program will be continued, promoting computer skills, GED study, job training, and employment and individual counseling, encouraging additional residents to become self sufficient and productive members of the community with a chance to purchase Authority properties.

The Authority will be working closely with the City of Petersburg to use its resources to pursue additional development initiatives that will rebound to the benefit of the businesses and residents of the city and the Authority. These initiatives will be continuously evolving and ongoing.

Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority Deconcentration Policy

The Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority has committed to the economic uplift of its current and future residents for its primary deconcentration policy. The policy will be conducted at all the family housing complexes and will consist of numerous and frequent contacts utilizing housing managers and Human Resources Coordinators, offering opportunities and incentives to encourage residents to increase their incomes, find new more rewarding positions, gain greater educational and vocational skills, and otherwise take advantage of existing programs to attain upward mobility.

Certain of the policies which will encourage these goals and will be used by the Authority to advance its deconcentration policy are the new ceiling rent policy, the vocational, computer training and miscellaneous social services provided by the Authority and other partners and the homeownership program, which makes homeownership a potential goal for existing Authority residents.

The PRHA is dealing with concentrations of poverty in an active manner aiding the residents of the family properties to achieve greater income and thereby individually break the cycle of poverty.

Definition of "Substantial Deviation" and "Significant Amendment or Modification"

The Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority defines the terms "Substantial Deviation" and "Significant Amendment or Modification" by stating the basic criteria for such definitions in the annual plan that has met full public process and review. The PRHA will consider the following actions to be significant amendments or modifications:

- Changes to rent or admissions policies or organization of the waiting list;
- Additions of non-emergency work items (items not included in the current annual Statement or 5-Year Action Plan) or change in use of replacement reserve funds under the Capital Fund and;
- Any change with regard to demolition or disposition, designation, homeownership programs or conversion activities.

An exception for this definition will be made for any of the above that are adopted to reflect changes in HUD regulatory requirements and such changes will not be considered significant amendments by HUD.

Voluntary Conversion Initial Assessment

The Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority has conducted an initial assessment of its properties for conversion of these public housing units to tenant-based assistance and the results are as follows.

The Authority has four developments of which three are subject to the initial assessments, the other Sycamore Towers, VA020-002, is designated elderly and near elderly and is thus exempt from the initial assessment.

The other three development are Pin Oaks, VA020-003, which contains 150 units and is located in an area which is presently under consideration for Replacement Housing.

Valor Drive, VA020-006, 10 units of duplex housing and Pecan Acres, VA020-001, 150 units in their own neighborhoods which the Authority believes is inappropriate for conversion to tenant based assistance. As public housing the development can be managed, maintained and secured in a much more viable manner then if it is converted.

All other Authority units are already included in its various homeownership programs and are as a result exempt.

Description of Implementation of Community Service Requirement

Residents who do not meet any of the criteria for an exemption are; required to complete a Certification of Compliance form, given a copy of our Community Service Policy and list of service providers, and referred to our Neighbors In Motion Program. During the twelve month period of their lease, participants are scheduled to meet with our Housing Operations Case Manager on a quarterly basis. At the initial appointment they review provider list and policy and complete a service schedule. During the interim review the staffperson review status and discuss accomplishments and barriers. A final review is scheduled at least 30 days prior to annual lease review, a service completion form or a non-compliance form is signed at this time.

Assesment Of Demographic Changes Since Site-Based Waiting List Implementation

There have been no new tenants admitted to Sycamore Towers under the age of 55 since implementing the Site-based waiting list.

Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority
Project Based Housing Choice Vouchers

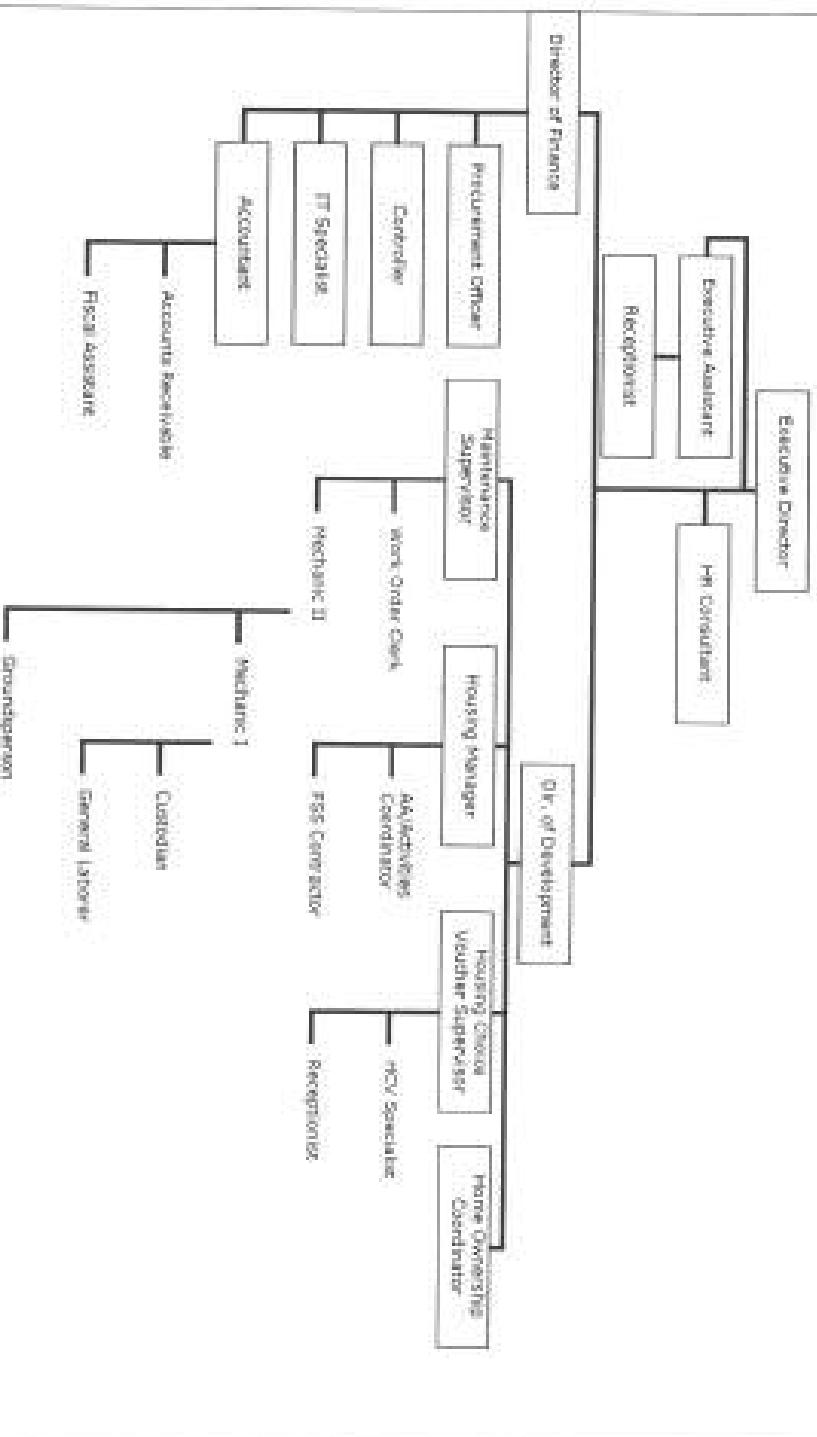

In accordance with HUD regulations as detailed in the Code of Federal Regulations 983 and others by reference and the Federal Register notice dated 01/16/2001, the Petersburg Redevelopment and Housing Authority can designate 20% of the Housing Choice Voucher stock to project-based assistance.

Under the tenant-based housing choice voucher program, the public housing authority (PHA) issues an eligible family a voucher and the family selects a unit of its choice. If the family moves out of the unit, the contract with the owner ends and the family can move with continued assistance to another unit.

Under the project-based voucher assistance program, a PHA enters into an assistance contract with the owner for specified units and for a specified term. The PHA refers families from its waiting list to fill units if they are vacant. Because the assistance is tied to the unit, a family who moves from the project-based unit does not have any right to continued housing assistance. However, they may be eligible for a tenant-based voucher when one becomes available.

In order to bring Wythe Row's (a tax credit property) two bedroom rents to rent reasonableness levels with market comparable two bedroom units and rents with the Richmond-Petersburg Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), project-based vouchers can be considered with minimal impact upon the residents for the rent adjustments. Funding for the vouchers is disbursed from the existing Annual Contributions Contract for housing choice vouchers. The residents would receive assisted housing assistance for affordable housing.
