- DUNBAR HOUSING AUTHORITY –
- PET POLICY FOR DUTCH HOLLOW APARTMENTS –

- I. General -- Pursuant to the federal Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, signed into law on October 21, 1998, residents of public housing developments may own, and have present in their apartments, common household pets such as dogs and cats, if the residents maintain the pets responsibly and in accordance with applicable State and local public health, animal control, and animal anti-cruelty laws and regulations, and in accordance with the pet policies established by the Dunbar Housing Authority.

II. Restrictions Concerning Characteristics of Pets --

Any dog whose weight exceeds twenty-five (25) pounds or whose height exceeds eighteen (18) inches shall be prohibited from being kept at the Dutch Hollow Apartments Complex. (The term "complex" includes buildings and grounds.) Any puppy whose current weight or height falls within the abovementioned height and weight limits, but whose adult weight or height will exceed those limits, shall also be prohibited from the Dutch Hollow Apartment Complex. Pit bulls, Dobermans, Rottweilers, and German shepherds of any size (and mixed breeds whose ancestry includes any appreciable amount of the above-mentioned breeds) are also prohibited.

III. Registration of Pets -- On a form prescribed by the Dunbar Housing Authority, each family wishing to keep a pet at the Dutch Hollow complex shall provide to the Authority basic information concerning the pet, including name of owner (who must be an adult), name of pet, type of pet (dog, cat, etc.), its age, its sex, its color, its estimated weight, its height, current vaccination records (if vaccination is required by local authorities), and current dog license receipt. At the time of recertification of income, etc. and at other times when requested by the Housing Authority, a pet owner shall continue to provide current information concerning vaccinations and dog licenses to the Authority.

IV. Fees and Pet Deposit -- In order to keep a pet at Dutch Hollow Apartments, a family must pay to the Dunbar Housing Authority a Twenty-Five Dollar ($25) fee and a Seventy-Five Dollar ($75) pet deposit. The total of One Hundred Dollars ($100) may be paid in four (4) monthly increments of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25) each.

V. Leash Policy -- Dogs who are outside apartments must be on leashes, and be accompanied by an adult. A child may have a dog on a leash, but a supervising adult must be in close proximity so as to provide proper supervision. The practice of tying a dog or cat outside the apartment and leaving it unattended, is prohibited. The Housing Authority has no requirement that cats be on leashes, but a supervising adult must be in close proximity when a cat is outside on the grounds of Dutch Hollow Apartments.

VI. Prohibition of Kenneling -- Kenneling of dogs or cats is not permitted. "Kenneling" is a person's congregating two or more dogs or cats into groups for purposes of boarding, breeding, training, or "dog-sitting", etc.

VII Rules Concerning Behavior of Pets -- Pet owners are to prevent pets from depositing excrement on the grounds of Dutch Hollow Apartments, and, if it does occur, the pet owner is responsible for cleaning up the excrement and properly disposing of it. If the pet owner fails to perform the cleaning task, a fine of Ten Dollars ($10) or more may be imposed on the owner by the Housing Authority. Pet owners are also responsible for preventing their pets from causing unsanitary conditions inside the apartments. Dogs should be "paper-trained" and cats should use litter boxes. Pet owners are to prevent any pet behavior that detracts from decent, safe, and sanitary housing. Prohibited practices include, but are not limited to, barking, howling, etc. with excessive frequency and/or volume, (especially during typical sleeping hours, i.e., from 11:00 P.M. to 7:00 A.M.), biting persons or other pets, other unduly aggressive and/or dangerous or threatening behavior toward persons or other pets, and creation of unsanitary and/or unhealthful conditions in the apartments or on the grounds of Dutch Hollow Apartments, whether such unsanitary and/or unhealthful conditions result from a pet's illness, the deposit of excrement, the presence of fleas, or other causes.

If pets cause damage to the Housing Authority's property (whether by gnawing, scratching, or other causes) their owners will be liable for the damage and be obligated to reimburse the Housing Authority therefor.

VIII Restrictions Concerning Number of Pets --
For apartment bedroom sizes from 2 through 4 bedrooms, each family is permitted to have not more than one pet. For bedroom size 5, each family is permitted to have not more than 2 pets, but, if the family has 2 pets, at least one of them must be a pet that is always kept in a cage or bowl, i.e., a bird, hamster, fish, etc.

IX

Restrictions Concerning Pets Owned by Non-Residents

The general rule is that pets owned by non-residents are not permitted to visit Dutch Hollow Apartments, i.e., they are not permitted to appear in the apartments or on the grounds here. For compelling reasons, the Housing Authority may grant exceptions to the abovementioned rule, upon a resident's written request, but if an exception is granted, the visiting pet will be subject to all of the requirements applicable to pets owned by residents, and the family that consents to receive a visiting pet will be held responsible for its behavior.

X

Remedies for Violations of Pet Policy --

Violations of the pet policy will also be deemed to be lease violations. Remedies for violations will include removal of the pet from the Dutch Hollow Apartment Complex, or eviction of the family.

XI

Effective Date -- The effective date of this pet policy shall be January 1, 1999.

Rod Harless
Executive Director
Dunbar Housing Authority
December 28, 1998.
