This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

(If "No", skip to the next component; if "yes", complete each program description below (copy and complete questions for each program identified.)

2. Program Description:

The Section 8 Homeownership Program offers an option for qualified families who receive Section 8 tenant based rental assistance to purchase a home in lieu of renting. The Vacaville Housing Authority (VHA) permits eligible participants in the Section 8 Rental Housing Assistance Program the option of participating in the Section 8 Homeownership Program. Currently, there is no maximum number of families allowed to participate in the Homeownership Program. However, the VHA reserves the right to give preference to families participating in the Family Self-Sufficiency program should the number of participants need to be restricted in the future.

The homeownership assistance may be used to purchase either a one-unit property or a single dwelling unit in a cooperative or a condominium that is either already existing or under construction at the time that the family is determined to be eligible for homeownership assistance. A manufactured home and the real property upon which it sits may also be eligible. The VHA has established relationships with local lenders: Wells Fargo, First Northern Bank, Travis Credit Union, as well as Guild Mortgage who provides low interest CALHFA loans to persons with disabilities. These lenders have committed to providing mortgages to eligible Section 8 Homeownership Program clients in order to purchase eligible properties.

The biggest obstacle faced by clients participating in the Section 8 Homeownership Program continues to be affordability. Although, home prices have dropped significantly due to the high number of foreclosures, the current median salesprice of $370,000 for a home is more than clients can qualify for at this time. The few units available at lower prices are generally condominiums that may be too small for the family size of the clients participating in the Homeownership Program.

The VHA currently has two successful clients who are receiving monthly homeownership assistance and believes that the number of successful participants will grow. To help ensure that clients are prepared for homeownership opportunities in the future, the VHA continues to focus on providing Homeownership Program participants with one-on-one homeownership counseling.

a. Size of Program

Yes No: Will the PHA limit the number of families participating in the Section 8 homeownership option?

If the answer to the question above was yes, what is the maximum number of participants this fiscal year?

b. PHA-established eligibility criteria

Yes No: Will the PHA's program have eligibility criteria for participation in its Section 8 Homeownership Option program in addition to HUD criteria? If yes, list criteria:

- The family must have completed at least one Annual Recertification.
- No family member may have any outstanding debt with the VHA or any other PHA.
- The family's current Section 8 tenant based rental assistance must be in good standing (not in violation of Housing Choice Voucher Program Family Obligations).

c. What actions will the PHA undertake to implement the program this year (list)?

- Continue partnerships with local lenders to finance homes for purchase by qualifying Section 8 participants.
- Continue relationships with the City of Vacaville Housing Counseling Center, Vallejo Neighborhood Housing Services, North Bay Housing Coalition and other local PHAs to ensure participant's ability to locate a home for purchase, successfully move from renting to homeownership and retain home owner status.
- Actively pursue opportunities to establish partnerships with additional lenders and other agencies to increase the availability of financing and add to the buying power of Section 8 Homeownership participants.
- The VHA will not limit the number of families eligible to participate in the Section 8 Homeownership Program.
- Continue to provide Section 8 Homeownership Program information in Spanish to effectively explain the program's purpose and benefits to Spanish speaking households.
- The VHA's bilingual technicians will assist in facilitating the transition from renting to homeownership for Spanish speaking households.
- The VHA will refer participants to quarterly credit workshops held by the City of Vacaville Housing Counseling Center to educate Section 8 Homeownership participants about how to establish and maintain an excellent credit history. These workshops will also be held in Spanish to ensure full access for participating households.

- The VHA will refer participants to quarterly City of Vacaville Housing Counseling Center Homeownership Education Learning Program (H.E.L.P.) workshops to educate Section 8 Homeownership participants about the home buying process and the responsibilities of becoming a homeowner and retaining home owner status. These workshops will also be held in Spanish to ensure full access for participating households.
- The VHA Homeownership Coordinator will meet individually with Section 8 homeownership participants to evaluate their readiness for homeownership and, if needed, develop an action plan to facilitate their transition from renting to homeownership.
- Increase awareness of the HUD-certified Vacaville Housing Counseling Center services that are available to VHA participants.
- Refer Section 8 homeownership participants to the City of Vacaville's First-Time Homebuyer Down Payment Assistance Loan and Shared Equity Loan Programs.

3. Capacity of the PHA to Administer a Section 8 Homeownership Program:

Violence Against Women Act Amendments of 2005 (VAWA)

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) requires the PHA's five-year and annual PHA plans to contain information regarding any goals, activities, objectives, policies, or programs of the PHA that are intended to support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The VHA's goals, activities, objectives, policies and programs regarding VAWA are summarized as follows:

- The VHA will continue maintaining compliance with all applicable legal requirements imposed by VAWA.
- The VHA will continue to develop its Section 8 program policies and procedures as needed to implement the requirements of VAWA.
- When terminating or denying assistance, the VHA will take into consideration if the reason for the criminal activities, lease violations or other violations is a direct result of a family member being the victim of domestic violence.
- The VHA will refer the victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to the City of Vacaville's Family Investigative Response Service Team (FIRST) which provides support and services to victims of domestic violence.
- The VHA staff has received training on the rights and protections afforded under VAWA and will continue to provide training to new staff.
- The VHA notified all participants upon initial enactment of VAWA by direct mailing, and will notify clients new to the program at the program briefing.
