(exp. 08/31/2009)

This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. Information in PHA plans is publicly available.

Compliance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

(Updated/Rev. 01.13.07) (PIH 2006-42; PIH 2006-23)

INTERIM POLICIES AND PROCEDURES:

(Pending Final and Additional HUD Technical Advice and Regulations)

On January 5, 2006, President Bush signed into law domestic violence legislation known as the " Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005" (the "Act"). (P.L.109-162). The Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005, (VAWA, protects tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them.

Pending further additional and/or final HUD technical advice and regulatory authority regarding the implementation of VAWA in an HCV only program, all related and relevant provisions of the currently adopted DHA Administrative Plan shall be operated in accordance with the following provisions:

1. Evidence and/or certification (as provided below under (10), (11) and (12) that an applicant or participant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is not an appropriate basis for denial of program assistance or for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission.
2. Subject to certain limitations provided below, an incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking cannot be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease "by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and will not "be good" cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence".
3. Criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights, if the tenant or immediate member of the tenant's family is a victim of domestic violence, or stalking.
4. A landlord/owner may bifurcate a lease in order to evict, remove or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of such violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.
5. In applying the provisions of VAWA, the DHA and landlord/owners, retain the right, when properly notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution of possession of property among the household members in cases where a non-authorized family member enters an assisted unit in contradiction to the legal authority above.
6. A landlord/owner retains the right to evict, and DHA retains the right to terminate assistance, on behalf of the tenant for any violation of a lease not promised on act or acts of violence in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant's household, provided that the landlord /owner subjecting an individual who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict or terminate assistance.
7. A landlord /owner retains the right to evict, and DHA retains the right to terminate assistance on behalf of a tenant if it can be demonstrated that there is an actual and imminent threat to the other tenants or those employed at the property or providing services to the property if the tenant's tenancy or assistance is not terminated.
8. Nothing in the Act shall be construed by the neither DHA nor participating landlord/owners to supersede any provision of an Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protections to victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking than contained in the Act.
9. An HCV participating family may receive a voucher from the DHA and move to another jurisdiction under the tenant based assistance program under the following conditions:
  - (1) The family has complied with all other obligation of the HCV program;
  - (2) The family has moved out of the assisted dwelling unit in order to protect the health or safety of an individual who is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and;
  - (3) The family reasonably believed he or she was imminently threatened by harm from further violence by having remained in the assisted dwelling unit.
10. In complying with the provisions above, a landlord/owner and the DHA may request that an individual certify via the HUD approved certification Form HUD form 50066, that the individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of such actual or threatened abuse and meet the requirements set forth in the Act such as indicated on form 50066. Such certification shall include the name of the perpetrator. Upon the request the individual shall provide the certification within 14 business days after the receipt of the certification.

11. If the individual fails to provide the Certification discussed in paragraph 10 above within 14 business days of a request, the Landlord/owner or DHA may terminate the assistance for any tenant or lawful occupant that commits a violation of the lease. The landlord/owner or DHA may extend the 14-day deadline at their discretion.
12. In lieu of, or in addition to completion of the HUD Form 50066 form a participant/applicant may satisfy the verification requirements discussed above in paragraph 10 by:
  - (1) Providing the requesting Lanlord/owner, or DHA with documentation signed by an employee, agent, or volunteer of victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of the abuse, in which the professional attests under penalty of perjury to the professional's belief that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse, and the victim has signed or attested to the documentation; or
  - (2) Producing a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local police or court record.
13. All information provided to a landlord/owner or the DHA relating to the fact that an individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, shall be retained in confidence, except to the extent that disclosure is: (1) requested or consented to by the individual in writing; (2) required for use in an eviction proceeding; or (3) otherwise required by applicable law.
14. It is the policy of the DHA that requests by HCV participants for emergency transfers that are the result of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will only be approved if they are accompanied by documentation substantiating the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking will only be approved if they are accompanied by documentation substantiating the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

On January 5, 2006, President Bush signed into law domestic violation legislation known as the "Violence against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005" (the "Act"). (P.L.109-162). In general, the Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005, VAWA, protects tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them.

In general, subject to certain limitations and DHA and/or Landlord Certification, the protections afforded under VAWA provide as follows:

- Applicants can't be denied rental assistance solely because they were previously evicted from an assisted site for being victims of domestic violence;
- Applicants can't be denied (nor tenants terminated from further housing assistance) solely for criminal activity that was directly related to domestic violence;
- Tenants/residents can't be evicted solely because they were victims of domestic violence; being a victim of domestic violence does not qualify as a "serious or repeated violation of the lease" or "other good cause" for eviction.

On January 5, 2006, President Bush signed into law domestic violence legislation known as the " Violence against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005" (the "Act"). (P.L.109-162). In general, the Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005, VAWA, protects tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them.

The provisions of the Act as they relate the DHA's HCV Program and to all HCV (Section 8) Holders, Applicants and Landlord/Owners are as follows:

Evidence and/or certification (as provided below under (10), (11) and (12) that an applicant or participant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is not an appropriate basis for denial of program assistance or for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission.

Subject to certain limitations provided below, an incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking cannot be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease "by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and will not "be good" cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence".

Criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights, if the tenant or immediate member of the tenant's family is a victim of domestic violence, or stalking.

A landlord/owner may bifurcate a lease in order to evict, remove or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of such violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.

In applying the provisions of VAWA, the DHA and landlord/owners, retain the right, when properly notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution of possession of property among the household members in cases where a non-authorized family member enters an assisted unit in contradiction to the legal authority above.

A landlord/owner retains the right to evict, and DHA retains the right to terminate assistance, on behalf of the tenant for any violation of a lease not promised on act or acts of violence in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant's household, provided that the landlord /owner subjecting an individual who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict or terminate assistance.

A landlord /owner retains the right to evict, and DHA retains the right to terminate assistance on behalf of a tenant if it can be demonstrated that there is an actual and imminent threat to the other tenants or those employed at the property or providing services to the property if the tenant's tenancy or assistance is not terminated.

Nothing in the Act shall be construed by the DHA nor a participating landlord/owners to supersede any provision of an Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protections to victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking than contained in the Act.

An HCV participating family may receive a voucher from the DHA and move to another jurisdiction under the tenant based assistance program under the following conditions:

- The family has complied with all other obligation of the HCV program;

- The family has moved out of the assisted dwelling unit in order to protect the health or safety of an individual who is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and;
- The family reasonably believed he or she was imminently threatened by harm from further violence by having remained in the assisted dwelling unit.

In complying with the provisions above, a landlord/owner and the DHA may request that an individual certify via the HUD approved certification Form HUD form 50066, that the individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of such actual or threatened abuse and meet the requirements set forth in the Act such as indicated on form 50066. Such certification shall include the name of the perpetrator. Upon the request the individual shall provide the certification within 14 business days after the receipt of the certification.

If the individual fails to provide the Certification discussed in paragraph 10 above within 14 business days of a request, the Landlord/owner or DHA may terminate the assistance for any tenant or lawful occupant that commits a violation of the lease. The landlord/owner or DHA may extend the 14-day deadline at their discretion.

In lieu of, or in addition to completion of the HUD Form 50066 form a participant/applicant may satisfy the verification requirements discussed above in paragraph 10 by:

- (1) Providing the requesting Landlord/owner, or DHA with documentation signed by an employee, agent, or volunteer of victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of the abuse, in which the professional attests under penalty of perjury to the professional's belief that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse, and the victim has signed or attested to the documentation; or
- (2) Producing a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local police or court record.

All information provided to a landlord/owner or the DHA relating to the fact that an individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, shall be retained in confidence, except to the extent that disclosure is: (1) requested or consented to by the individual in writing; (2) required for use in an eviction proceeding; or (3) otherwise required by applicable law.

It is the policy of the DHA that requests by HCV participants for emergency transfers that are the result of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will only be approved if they are accompanied by documentation substantiating the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking will only be approved if they are accompanied by documentation substantiating the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

Internal Office June, 2006

NOTICE

ATTENTION ALL LANDLORDS, TENANTS AND APPLICANTS COMPLYING WITH THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Public L. 109`62, as amended in 2006, addresses the housing needs of victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The 2006 provisions of VAWA are intended to protect victims domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking limit the right to of a public housing authority (PHA) and landlord-owners to terminate the tenancy or program assistance of a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

VAWA prohibits both the DHA and participating landlord-owners from considering actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking as 1) serious repeated violation of the lease by the victim; (2) other good cause for terminating the tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim; or (3) as criminal activity resulting in termination of tenancy or program assistance to the victim. If the perpetrator of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is a member of the victim's household, the DHA has the authority to require the perpetrator to leave the household as a condition of providing continued assistance to the remaining family members.

The protections against termination under the provisions of VAWA are not absolute and certain restrictions and certifications are and may be required.

Please contact your Certification Specialist or other DHA staff with any questions regarding the protections afforded by VAWA pending final HUD guidance on implementation of the new VAWA provisions.

Compliance Illinois State Law-Carbon Monoxide Detectors (Pub. Act. 094-0741)

All DHA participating Landlords were notified via a mailing in October of 2006 that would become effective and enforced by the DHA as of January 1, 2007. New landlords are also made aware of the Illinois carbon monoxide detector requirements.

All DHA Inspector materials were updated beginning and implemented effective January 1, 2007, Inspections have been and are being done in accordance with Illinois State law. Inspector Field sheets list failure to meet the requirements of Pub. Act 094-0741 as a 24-hour violation.

Finally, it should be noted that the current DHA Administrative Plan as it exists has continued to adopted the policy standard of the "stricter of HQS or local building codes" in enforcing HQS compliance and accordingly, the carbon monoxide provisions were and would have been self incorporating into the DHA Administrative Plan, upon enactment and the January 1, 2007 Effective Date.
