Housing

OMB No. 2577-0226
(exp. 08/31/2009)

This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. Information in PHA plans is publicly available.

9. Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

In describing its activities, services, or programs related to the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Holliston Housing Authority (HHA) will do the following:

- (1) The HHA will send a notice to all Section Eight Housing Choice Voucher Holders informing them of the VAWA and its provisions. The Resident Notice will inform them of their rights under the VAWA to avoid eviction and any other punitive action when activities covered under the Act have occurred.
- (2) The HHA will establish a list of service providers, which are available to provide services to “victims” as covered and defined by VAWA. The HHA will provide this list to any resident requesting information and/or service

The VAWA Notification Form is provided as Attachment 1: MA165a01

The VAWA Certification Form is provided as Attachment 2: MA165a02

Holliston Housing Authority

Notice to Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program Participants

Have you been a victim of domestic violence, stalking, or dating violence?

If so, you should know your rights as a Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program participant:

- The Housing Authority may not deny you admission to the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program solely because you or a household member are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- The abuser's acts or threats of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against you or a household member are not good cause for terminating your participation in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. You do not violate your lease if you or a household member have been the victim of acts of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- The Housing Authority cannot terminate your participation in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against you or a household member, unless the Housing Authority can show there is an actual or imminent threat to the safety of other tenants or Housing Authority staff if you are not evicted.
- If the abuser is a household member, the Housing Authority can evict your abuser for his or her acts of domestic violence, but (assuming you continue to qualify for participation in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program) it may not terminate your participation or otherwise penalize you, unless (as described above) it can show there is an actual and imminent threat to the safety of other tenants or Housing Authority Staff if you are not evicted.
- The Housing Authority may evict you for serious or repeated lease violations that are unrelated to the domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against you, as long as it does not hold you to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who are not victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- The Housing Authority can ask you to prove, or "certify" that you or a household member are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and thus entitled to the above rights.
- If the Housing Authority asks you to certify that you or a household member are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking you must provide that certification within 14 business days of the request.

- There are certain documents that the Housing Authority must accept as proof that you or a household member are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, including police or court records, and certain statements from attorneys, medical professionals, and domestic violence advocates. The Housing Authority also has discretion to accept any other kind of evidence that shows you or a household member are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- Specifically, any one of the following is sufficient proof that you or a household member are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking entitled to the above rights.
 - A written, signed statement from a victim services provider that states under penalty of perjury that the provider believes the incidents in question were acts of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against you or a household member and includes the name of the abuser. You or the household member must also sign the document.
 - A written, signed statement from a medical professional that states under penalty of perjury that the medical professional believes the incidents in question were acts of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against you or a household member and includes the name of the abuser. You or the household member must also sign the document.
 - A written, signed statement from an attorney that states under penalty of perjury that the attorney believes that the incidents in question were acts of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against you or a household member that includes the name of the abuser. You or the household member must also sign the document.
 - A police record that indicates you or a household member were a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking that names the abuser.
 - A court record (for example, a protective order) that indicates you or a household member were a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking that names the abuser.
- In general, the Housing Authority must keep confidential any information you or the household member provide about the violence against you or the household member unless you or the household member give permission for it to share the information with someone else in a signed consent. The Housing Authority may use this information, however, if it needs the information in an eviction proceeding (for example, in order to evict the abuser). A Housing Authority can also disclose this information if required to do so by law.
