Hardship Requests for an Exception Minimum Rent

The PHA recognizes that in some circumstances even the minimum rent may create a financial hardship for families. The PHA will review all relevant circumstances brought to the PHA's attention regarding financial hardship as it applies to the minimum rent. The following section states the PHA's procedures and policies in regard to minimum rent financial hardship as set forth by the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998. HUD has defined circumstances under which a hardship could be claimed.

Criteria for Hardship Exception

In order for a family to qualify for a hardship exception, the family's circumstances must fall into one of the following criteria:

1. The family has lost eligibility or is awaiting an eligibility determination for Federal, State, or local assistance;
2. The family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement;
3. The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including:
 - a. Loss of employment
 - b. Death in the family
 - c. Other circumstances as determined by the HA or HUD.

PHA Notification to Families of Right to Hardship Exception

The PHA will notify all families subject to minimum rents of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception. "Subject to minimum rent" means the minimum rent is the least amount of rent paid, based on 30 percent of monthly-adjusted income, 10% of monthly income, minimum rent or welfare rent.

The PHA notification will advise families that hardship exception determinations are subject to PHA review and hearing procedures.

The PHA will review all family requests for exception from the minimum rent due to financial hardships. All requests for minimum rent hardship exceptions are required to be in writing. The PHA will request documentation as proof of financial hardship. The PHA will use its standard verification procedures to verify circumstances, which have resulted in financial hardship. Requests for minimum rent exception must include a statement of the family hardship that qualify the family for an exception.

Temporary Hardship

If the PHA determines that the hardship is temporary, a minimum rent is suspended for a period of 90 days from the date of the family's request. At the end of the 90-day period, the minimum rent is reinstated retroactively to the date of the suspension. The PHA must offer to execute a reasonable repayment agreement to cover the minimum rent charges accumulated during the suspension period.
