[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Housing Authority of the City of Camden (HACC) has proposed this Agency Plan in compliance with Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 and ensuing department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) requirements.

At the present time the HACC administers 1,901 conventional public housing units, 1,067 Section 8 vouchers, and 188 HOPE VI relocation vouchers. There are 306 elderly and disabled units and 1,280 family units in ten (10) public housing developments.

HACC's three developers will continue to implement the construction of the 672 unit Roosevelt Manor HOPE VI Revitalization Plan.

HACC through our Resident Initiatives Department are providing full services to the residents of HACC. This has involved working with community partners to determine the most effective and efficient services. The quality and level of services provided by the HACC social service staff is held in the highest regards throughout the Social Service Community. The HACC are providing Senior Programs and Services, Youthbuild, Success Learning Center and other services through the Family Ross Grant. In meeting our elderly populations needs the HACC has 28 participants in our Assisted Living Program. Also the Youthbuild program has graduated 235 students. The Youthbuild students have successfully worked on 10 vacant units to turn over for occupancy. Also through Youthbuild its participants have obtained their GED. Our Resident Initiative's Department is also currently working to pre-qualify residents to participate in the FSS Program.

The HACC intends to continue to operate its programs effectively and efficiently while working more closely with the cities new COO and Local Government. The HACC will pursue additional affordable housing for the City when appropriate opportunities are available, and will strive to make opportunities available to participants in its programs to enhance their quality of life.
