5.1	Mission. State the PHA's Mission for serving the needs of low-income, very low-income, and extremely low income families in the PHA's jurisdiction for the next five years: The Sheridan Housing Authority has in the past and will continue in the future to make every attempt possible to utilize its funding to the fullest. Our goal is to be 100% leased at all times and to solicit additional funding when and if it becomes available from HUD in order to offer additional assistance to low income households. Sheridan has never received funding from HUD tied to the FSS program, but has established a cooperative program with the Englewood Housing Authority to provide FSS program services on a voluntary basis with Sheridan housing participants. We have included in our selection a preference for those that are working or are a full-time student. We have done so to encourage self-sufficiency, even at program entry. We plan on continuing our voluntary FSS program as long as program funding availability makes it possible.
5.2	Goals and Objectives.
