Housing Needs. Based on information provided by the applicable Consolidated Plan, information provided by HUD, and other generally available data, make a reasonable effort to identify the housing needs of the low-income, very low-income, and extremely low-income families who reside in the jurisdiction served by the PHA, including elderly families, families with disabilities, and households of various races and ethnic groups, and other families who are on the public housing and Section 8 tenant-based assistance waiting lists. The identification of housing needs must address issues of affordability, supply, quality, accessibility, size of units, and location.

The lack of affordable housing particularly for those with low and moderate income is a significant issue in the Town of Enfield. The median price of a home in Connecticut remains well above the national average, and rents are also high. For example, more than a third of those who rent spend more than 30 percent of their income on rent. The area of Thompsonville is where the majority of tenants find apartments due to the fact that the other areas in town are basically single family owner lived in housing. The Enfield Housing Authority currently owns 456 affordable housing units: 200 for the Elderly and Young disabled, 174 for families and 82 units of congregate housing. There is also a project based Section 8 program that offers approximately 74 units of affordable housing in Enfield. The town of Enfield is 33.8 square miles with a current population of approximately 45,246. There are 16,418 households and 11,394 families residing in the town. The racial makeup of the town is approximately 89.74% White, 5.61% African American, 0.20% Native American, 1.34% Asian, 0.02% Pacific Islander, 1.57% from other races, and 1.54% from two or more races. Hispanic or Latino of any race was 3.74% of the population. The median income for a household in the town was $52,810, and the median income for a family was $60,528. The per capita income for the town was $21,967. About 2.8% of families and 4.0% of the population were below the poverty line, including 3.4% of those under age 18 and 5.7% of those age 65 or over.

Provide a brief description of the PHA's strategy for addressing the housing needs of families in the jurisdiction and on the waiting list in the upcoming year. Note: Small, Section 8 only, and High Performing PHAs complete only for Annual Plan submission with the 5-Year Plan.

The EHA will address the housing the housing needs of families in the jurisdiction by applying for additional vouchers should that opportunity become available.
