5.0	5-Year Plan. Complete items 5.1 and 5.2 only at 5-Year Plan update.
5.1	Mission. State the PHA’s Mission for serving the needs of low-income, very low-income, and extremely low income families in the PHA’s jurisdiction for the next five years: The mission of the PHA is the same as that of the Department of Housing and Urban Development: To promote adequate and affordable housing, economic opportunity and a suitable living environment free from discrimination..
5.2	Goals and Objectives. Identify the PHA’s quantifiable goals and objectives that will enable the PHA to serve the needs of low-income and very low-income, and extremely low-income families for the next five years. Include a report on the progress the PHA has made in meeting the goals and objectives described in the previous 5-Year Plan. 1.) Reduce vacancies and report vacancy numbers at the regular Board of Commissioners’ meetings (2009 vacant units = 18 - Goal vacant units = 16 or lower); 2.) Seek ways to improve the public housing management scores (PHAS) and report results at the regular Board of Commissioners’ meetings (2009 = standard performer – Goal = high performer); and 3.) Concentrate on efforts to improve management functions: streamline and store electronically application/waiting list process which will make process easier to apply and reducing administrative costs; and administrative documents stored electronically emphasizing document security and cost reductions (estimated 12,200 wasted paper sheets from application to new move in: Goal to reduce sheets by 60%). The agency will continue to 1.) Support families that are victims of domestic violence through education of VAWA (The Violence Against Women Act) and agency policies and 2.) Report to the Board of Commissioners at the regular scheduled meetings the number of families that seek protection under VAWA. Previous 2005-2009 Plan Report: 1. Agency succeed in increasing the supply of assisted housing in 2007 by securing un-leverage financing and renovating an un-rentable too large four bedroom duplex (2 units) into a new all electric highly marketable one bedroom four-plex (4 units): net increase of 2 units from 2005 to 2007. Also, agency succeeded in reducing the number of vacancies per year which meant more occupied days (2005 vacant units = 23 verses 18 in 2009). 2. Agency obtained a standard PHAS score throughout 2005-2009 years which was a direct result of tight financial reserves and major staff replacements. 3. Agency eliminated the goal of increased assisted housing choices in the homeownership area due to the large expense requirements which was not obtainable due to the agency’s size and reserve levels. 4. Agency implemented a working family application preference to address improving community quality of life and economic vitality and promoting self-sufficiency. The preference alone did not resulted in a long term increase in the higher income brackets. Agency will continue to investigate additional ways to address this goal (example: marketing to employees of small local businesses).
