Resident Advisory Board Comments and Recommendations to the Five Year Plan

The RAB had no Recommendations to the Five Year Plan. They commented that they felt more subsidized housing is needed but understood that additional funding, particularly for the Housing Choice Voucher, is not readily available. They felt that the collaboration was a good opportunity for the BHA to create more affordable housing in the community.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) protects tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them.

Criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, engaged in by a member of a tenant household or any guest or other persons under the tenants control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenants family is the victim or threatened victim or that abuse. Incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and will not be good cause for termination of the assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights and obligations under VAWA.

Certification of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking will be required if incidents Have occurred that may affect a tenant's participation in the housing program. The participant must complete and submit form HUD 50066 within fourteen business days of the BHA's request. On the form, the individual certifies that he/she is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, and that the incidences are bona fide incidences of such actual or threatened abuse. The individual shall provide the name of the perpetrator

The tenant will be required to come to the office to pick up a certification report. The tenant will be encouraged to work with the BHA to make delivery arrangements that do not place the tenant at risk.

If the tenant does not provide the form HUD –50066 by the 14th business day or any approved extension of that date, none of the protections afforded to the victim will apply. The BHA or owner would be free to evict, or to terminate assistance without regard to the amendments made by this act.

All information provided to the BHA or owner relating to the incidents, including the fact that an individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, must be retained in confidence and not shared with any other entity, except to the extent that the disclosure is requested and consented by the individual in writing, required for use in an eviction proceeding or termination of assistance, or otherwise required by law.
