| 5.1 | Mission. State the PHA's Mission for serving the needs of low-income, very low-income, and extremely low income families in the PHA's jurisdiction for the next five years: The Mission of the Belmont Housing Authority for the next five years will be to continue to promote and to provide decent, safe and affordable housing opportunities in environment that is free of discrimination and we will administer all programs in a manner that is consistent with all Federal and State regulations and requirements. The Authority will also continue to work with the Town of Belmont to better understand the housing needs of the community and its residents. | | | | | |
| 5.2 | Goals and Objectives. Include a report on the progress the PHA has made in meeting the goals and objectives described in the previous 5-Year Plan. Since the previous 5 -Year Plan, the BHA has made every effort to maintain its SEMAP rating as a "high performer" and to increase its housing programs by requesting applications from qualified owners of existing housing for Section 8 Project-Based Assistance for special needs populations within the Town. In serving the needs of the low-income, very low income and extremely low income population within the community, the BHA plans to explore future opportunities to help serve underserved populations by supporting new development of affordable housing particularly with regard to any initiatives that are undertaken by the Town of Belmont. The Authority will also continue its efforts to preserve existing affordable housing and to provide expanded rental opportunities for income eligible households. | | | | | |

The identification of housing needs must address issues of affordability, supply, quality, accessibility, size of units, and location. According to the most recent available data, there continues to be a need for both low and moderate income housing that would include housing for families, the elderly and for persons with disabilities. It would also appear that Hispanic and Asian households were most likely to have affordability problems based on incomes that are below 80% of median. The housing needs are primarily based on supply and affordability. |

The BHA continues to have a representative who attends monthly meetings with the Belmont Housing Trust. (b) Significant Amendment and Substantial Deviation/Modification. BELMONT HOUSING AUTHORITY

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act, the Belmont Housing Authority (BHA) has incorporated the following provisions into the PHA's annual plan.

No applicant for public housing who has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking shall be denied admission into the program if they are otherwise qualified.

An incident or incidents or actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, will not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence, and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence.

The BHA may honor court orders regarding the rights and access or control of the property, and other orders issued to protect the victim and address the distribution or possession of property among household members where the family breaks up.

The BHA may terminate the assistance to remove a lawful occupant or tenant who engages in criminal or threatened act of violence or stalking of family members or others without terminating the assistance to or evicting victimized lawful occupants.

There is no limitation on the ability of the BHA to evict for other good cause unrelated to the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking other than the victim may not be subject to a more demanding standard than non-victims.

There is no prohibition of the BHA evicting if it can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if the tenants (victim's) tenancy is not terminated.

Any protections provided by law, which give greater protection to the victim, are not superseded by these provisions.

The BHA may require certification by the victim or victim status on such forms as the BHA and/or HUD shall prescribe or approve.
