Notification of Rights Under the Violence Against Women Act Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program Owner/Manager

A new federal law reauthorizing the 2005 Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and signed into law January 5, 2006, provides certain rights and protections to Section 8 assisted tenants and member of their household.

Protection Against Eviction or Termination of Assistance

1. Under VAWA, if an applicant or participant in the Section 8 program is otherwise eligible, the fact that the applicant or participant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is not an appropriate basis for denial of program assistance or for denial of admission.
2. VAWA also states that an incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking:
 - a. Will not be considered to be a “serious or repeated” violation of the lease if the tenant is the victim of the incident of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, and
 - b. Shall not be good cause for terminating the tenant’s assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights if the tenant is the victim of such actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

This means that the tenant may not be evicted, nor may his or her assistance be terminated, based on such an incident of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking where the tenant is the victim.

3. In addition, although you may evict a tenant for certain types of criminal activity as provided in the lease, and the housing agency may terminate a household’s assistance in such cases, VAWA states that you may not evict, or terminate tenancy or occupancy rights if the criminal activity is
 - a. Directly related to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking; and
 - b. Engaged in by a member of the household, or any guest, or another person under the tenant’s control; and
 - c. The tenant or a member of the tenant’s immediate family is the victim or threatened victim of this criminal activity.

PORTABILITY TO A NEW LOCATION

As you may know, Section 8 households in good standing may move to another location after one year of assistance and their assistance will follow them. However, the law does not allow this if the family was in violation of its lease when it moved. VAWA creates an exception where a family has complied with all other Section 8 requirements but moved out in violation of their lease in order to protect the health or safety of an individual who:

- Was or is the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, and
- Reasonably believe he or she was imminently threatened by harm from further violence if he or she remained in the assisted dwelling unit.

CERTIFICATION

If you notify a tenant that you intend to terminate the tenant's tenancy based on a matter that is an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and the tenant claims protection against eviction or termination of assistance under VAWA, you must contact your county office staff. Your tenant will be given a HUD-approved certification form in order to document the incidents in question. The tenant will have 14 business days from receipt of the form to complete it and return to North East Community Action Corporation (NECAC). Other forms may be considered for verification. If the tenant does not complete this task within the time allowed, he or she will not have protection under VAWA and you may proceed with terminating tenancy and evicting the tenant without reference to VAWA.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Information provided to you relating to the fact that the tenant or another member of the tenant's household is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking must be retained by you in confidence. This information may not be shared or disclosed by you or your agents or employees without the tenant's consent except as necessary for an eviction proceeding or as otherwise required by law.

LIMITATIONS

VAWA provides certain limitations and clarifications concerning tenants' rights as described above. In particular, you should know that nothing contained in VAWA:

1. Prevents you from terminating tenancy and evicting, for any violation not involving domestic violence for which VAWA provide the protections described above. However, you may not, in such cases, apply any more demanding standard to the tenant that you would to other Section 8 assisted families.
2. Prevents you from terminating tenancy and evicting where you can demonstrate "an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing services to the property". Where you can demonstrate such a threat, the tenant will not be protected from termination of tenancy and eviction by VAWA.
3. Limits your ability to comply with court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property. This includes civil protection entered for the protection of the victim or relating to destruction or possession of property.
4. Supersedes any federal, state or local law that provides greater protections than VAWA.

OWNER OR MANAGER RIGHT TO REMOVE PERPETRATOR OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

VAWA also creates a new authority under Federal law that allows an owner or manager of a Section 8 assisted property to evict, remove, or terminate assistance to any individual tenant or lawful occupant of the property who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others. This may be done without evicting or taking any other action adverse to the other occupants.

NECAC encourages you to consult your legal counsel to develop a suitable written policy of your own that complies with VAWA, and you are further encouraged to conduct the necessary training of property management personnel concerning VAWA requirements.
