VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)

Walworth County has been blessed with a wonderful agency that provides direct services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. The Association for the Prevention of Family Violence (APFV) was founded over 30 years ago and continues to provide confidential services to adults and children that are free of charge. APFV provides the following free direct services:

- 24-hour telephone crisis line
- Individual counseling by appointment or walk-in
- Weekly ongoing support groups
- Information and assistance in obtaining a domestic abuse restraining order
- Information and referral to other community agencies
- Legal advocacy
- Transitional Housing Program (THP)
- Crime Victim advocacy
- Children's services
- Family support
- Hands For Peace – school program
- Teen services and older school age program

APFV has developed strong working relationships with local law enforcement, district attorney's office, judges, Victim Witness, Health & Human Services, Child Protective Services, and many other agencies and organizations to create a seamless process for addressing the needs of victims in Walworth County.

While the Walworth County Housing Authority does not offer direct services or programs for victims, for the past 15 years APFV and the Housing Authority have worked collaboratively in developing and implementing APFV's Transitional Housing Program (THP). The THP program is funded through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Supportive Housing Program grant (SHP). The THP is for homeless victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, and their families. The grant provides victims the opportunity to have subsidized rent and one-on-one case management services, with the goal of obtaining permanent housing and achieving a level of self-sufficiency. At present, the Executive Director for the Walworth County Housing Authority serves as a volunteer board member for APFV.

The staff of the Walworth County Housing Authority provides information about the VAWA to program participants on a yearly basis during the annual recertification program. Staff is very familiar with the services and programs offered by APFV and take the time to provide that information to anyone who may need access to those services. Housing Authority staff will also work collaboratively with APFV staff to assist victims in applying for the Section 8 waiting list or to make referrals to landlords in the County. This teamwork helps victims locate safe and sometimes immediate housing options.
