Resolution 1817
Implement the Violence Against Women Policy

WHEREAS, The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) was signed into law on January 5, 2005; and

WHEREAS, This law prohibits the eviction of victims of domestic violence if the violence is the sole reason for the eviction (other reasons such as non payment of rent or other lease violations can trigger the eviction process); and

WHEREAS, The law requires Housing Authorities to take certain steps to inform the participants and landlords of this law and to provide the victim with the means to certify they are a victim of domestic violence and protect themselves from eviction; and

WHEREAS, The Administrative and Continued Occupancy Policies (ACOP) of the Housing Authority must be updated to reflect the Violence Against Women Act; and

WHEREAS, Staff has prepared policies and procedures to insure compliance with VAWA; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Commissioners have reviewed the recommended policies and procedures and found that they meet the requirements; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED THAT The Board of Commissioners approves the recommended policies and procedures dealing with VAWA and the addition of the following to the Administrative and Continued Occupancy Policies:

20.2.1 TERMINATION FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

If a tenant of any HUD program is being evicted due to of domestic violence including disturbing the neighbors or damage to the unit and the victim certifies that they are a victim, the Housing Authority or Section 8 landlord can only proceed with the eviction against the abuser, not the remainder of the family. In order for the victim to certify that they are a victim, there is a certification form which will have to be completed and returned within 14 business days stating that they are a victim and stating the name of the abuser. The victim may be required to provide official documentation or physical proof. In lieu of the certification, the victim may provide documentation by:

1. A Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local police or court record:
2. Documents signed by an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence. The professional must attest under penalty of perjury to their belief that the incidents in question are bonafide.

If the victim does not provide the certification and/or verification, the landlord may proceed with the eviction against the whole family.
