11.0 (f) Resident Advisory Board (RAB) Comments

The Roseville Housing Authority's Resident Advisory Board (RAB) met on January 25, 2011 with Roseville Housing Authority staff. The RAB members reviewed the Roseville Housing Authority's draft Annual Plan and those in attendance had the following questions and comments:

GENERAL QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS

A question was raised as to how the noticing of the opening of the HCV waiting list would be done.

- Staff explained that the housing authority will give public notice of the wait list opening by publishing the relevant information in various local newspapers including the Sacramento Bee and the Press-Tribune as well as on the Roseville Housing Authority's website.

An explanation was requested as to how the Public Hearing on March 2nd will be run.

- Staff explained that the City Council members also serve as members of the Housing Authority and in this capacity will open the public hearing for the public to express their comments about the Annual Plan. Once public comments are heard and addressed, the Housing Authority Chair will close the public comments. Staff encouraged the RAB members to attend the public hearing and also informed them that the meeting will be televised and also archived on the City of Roseville's website.

A comment was provided regarding the Housing Authority new vouchers for non-elderly disabled persons.

- A RAB member commented that these new vouchers will be of great help to those needing the assistance.

Appreciation was expressed

- Several RAB members verbalized their appreciation to Housing Authority staff for doing a good job. One RAB member stated that she did not know what she would do without the rental assistance.

DISCUSSION OF LOTTERY TO LIMIT THE NUMBER OF APPLICATIONS

Housing staff explained the reason for using a lottery to limit the number of applications that will be accepted:

- When the waiting list opened last in 2006, the Housing Authority received over 4,000 applications. The list will last over five years. Staff has spent excessive amount of time sending out update applications to all the applicants. Applicants often do not inform the Housing Authority of changes in their household or mailing addresses. Mail sent out by the Housing Authority is often undeliverable or the applicant has received assistance elsewhere.
- By limiting the number of applications, the Housing Authority will need to open its waiting list more frequently. This will ensure that the information submitted by the applicants will be more current. This should also reduce the number of inquiries from persons who missed their opportunity to apply and are asking when the wait list will be open again.
- Although we plan to open the wait list for only a limited number of days, we anticipate receiving a large number of applications. The Housing Authority will conduct a lottery to accept a pre-determined number of applications, rather than accepting the applications in the order they were entered on-line. This should serve to eliminate the havoc and sense of urgency that applicants would otherwise experience. A lottery will ensure that all applicants have the same chance of having their application accepted during the current wait list opening.

RAB COMMENTS:

- RAB members felt that the lottery system would be fair to all applicants.

DISCUSSION OF LATE FEE FOR DELINQUENT REPAYMENT AGREEMENT PAYMENTS

Housing staff explained the reason for instituting a $10 late fee for program participants that are delinquent on their monthly repayment agreement payments to the Housing Authority.

- Housing authorities are not required to provide participants who owe the housing authority money the opportunity to repay it with a repayment agreement and monthly payments. Many housing authorities require the repayment to be made to the housing authority in full.
- Participants with repayment agreements are given until the 10th of each month to make their payments before they are considered delinquent.

- Housing Authority staff are spending excessive amount of time and expense mailing reminder notices to participants that are not making their payments in a timely manner.
- Many participants are waiting to make their payments until after they receive their reminder notices.

RAB COMMENTS:

- RAB members felt the late fee was fair since the participants are already given 10 days to make their payment to the Housing Authority.
- A RAB member felt that the late fee would help to cover the Housing Authority's costs to administer the repayment agreements.

No comments received at the Public Hearing held March 2, 2011.

VAWA Statement Attachment
for Fiscal Year 2011 Annual PHA Plan
PHA Name: Roseville Housing Authority - CA 128

The Roseville Housing Authority (RHA) is acting in full accordance with the Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA) to extend the rights and protections it affords to qualified Housing Choice Voucher assisted tenants and members of their households who are victims of criminal domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.

RHA provided notification of the provisions of VAWA to all HCV participants and to property owners with active HCV tenants. Detailed information regarding VAWA is also posted on our website at www.roseville.ca.us/hcv .

RHA staff has received training about the protections afforded by VAWA and are alert to the various circumstances in which participants may need to be reminded of their possible VAWA protections.

Roseville Housing Authority
311 Vernon Street
Roseville, California 95678

To all current Housing Choice Voucher participants and property owners:

The following information details how the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) affects public housing agencies, assisted tenants and participating property owners.

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

The intent of the Violence Against Women Act of 2005 (VAWA) is to protect the rights of victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The legislation imposes several important new requirements on public housing agencies that operate a Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program.

One important provision in the Act protects victims of domestic violence from being evicted from their subsidized unit or having their housing assistance terminated solely because they are victims as defined under this Act. This applies to the Roseville Housing Authority (RHA) as well as to property owners and managers participating in the HCV program. Further, RHA will take into account evidence of domestic violence in considering when to allow transfers of the HCV assistance to other jurisdictions when needed to protect a family from further violence.

To receive the protection that VAWA provides, HUD requires that an individual provide self-certification or appropriate verification that they are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and that the incident or incidents are bona fide incidents of actual or threatened abuse. VAWA requires that all information provided to a property owner, manager, or public housing authority concerning the victim of domestic violence must be kept confidential, unless the disclosure is requested or consented to by the individual in writing; it is required for use in an eviction proceeding; or otherwise required by applicable law.

More detailed information about VAWA and the Self-Certification form may be found on our website at: www.roseville.ca.us/housing on the Housing Choice Voucher rental assistance page.

If you need additional assistance understanding if this information applies to you, please contact your case manager.

VAWA INFORMATION ON ROSEVILLE H.A. WEBSITE

www.roseville.ca.us/hcv

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Program

The Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA) extends certain rights and protections to qualified Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) assisted tenants and qualified family members of tenants who are victims of criminal domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.

Protection from Denial of Public Housing Assistance and Admission

Under the VAWA, if an applicant or participant in the HCV program is otherwise eligible and qualified for assistance or admission, the fact that the applicant or participant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking (as these terms are defined in the VAWA) is not an appropriate basis for denial of program assistance or for denial of admission.

Protection from Eviction

VAWA also provides that an incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence.

While criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under a tenant's control shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights—provided that the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant's family is the victim or threatened victim of such violence—owners and managers are permitted to bifurcate a lease in order to evict, remove or terminate assistance to a tenant or lawful occupant who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members and others, without evicting or penalizing the victim(s).

Portability to a New Location

HCV households in good standing may move to another location after one (1) year of assistance and their assistance will follow them. However, the law does not permit portability if the family was in violation of its lease when it moved.

VAWA permits portability if a family has otherwise complied with all other HCV requirements, but moved out of the assisted dwelling unit in violation of the lease in order to protect the health or safety of an individual who is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, and who reasonably believed he or she was imminently threatened by harm from further violence if he or she remained in the assisted dwelling unit.

Certification

Tenants seeking protection against eviction or termination of assistance under VAWA may be required to complete and submit a HUD-approved certification form certifying that the individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of such actual or threatened abuse and otherwise meet the requirements of VAWA protection.

Certification shall include the name of the perpetrator and may be accomplished by completion and delivery of the above-referenced HUD-approved certification form mentioned above, by providing documentation signed, under penalty of perjury, by an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional from whom the victim (the tenant or another member of the tenant's immediate family) has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking or the effects of the abuse, or by producing and delivering, a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local police or court record.

Failure to provide certification within fourteen (14) business days after receipt of a written request to do so may result in the loss of VAWA protections.

Confidentiality

Information provided by way of certification must be retained in confidence by a property owner, manager or public housing authority. This information may not be entered into any shared database nor provided to any related entity except to the extent disclosure is requested or consented to by the individual in writing or as necessary for use in an eviction proceeding or as otherwise required by law.

Additional Limitations

The above-referenced protections are circumstantially specific. Nothing contained in VAWA prevents terminating assistance, tenancy or eviction for any violation not involving domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. Additionally, if an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property can be demonstrated, a tenant will not be protected from termination of tenancy and eviction under the VAWA.

1. The Plan is consistent with the applicable comprehensive housing affordability strategy (or any plan incorporating such strategy) for the jurisdiction in which the PHA is located.
2. The Plan contains a certification by the appropriate State or local officials that the Plan is consistent with the applicable Consolidated Plan, which includes a certification that requires the preparation of an Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice, for the PHA's jurisdiction and a description of the manner in which the PHA Plan is consistent with the applicable Consolidated Plan.

8. For PHA Plan that includes a policy for site based waiting lists:
 - The PHA regularly submits required data to HUD's 50058 PIC/IMS Module in an accurate, complete and timely manner (as specified in PIH Notice 2006-24);
 - The system of site-based waiting lists provides for full disclosure to each applicant in the selection of the development in which to reside, including basic information about available sites; and an estimate of the period of time the applicant would likely have to wait to be admitted to units of different sizes and types at each site;
 - Adoption of site-based waiting list would not violate any court order or settlement agreement or be inconsistent with a pending complaint brought by HUD;
 - The PHA shall take reasonable measures to assure that such waiting list is consistent with affirmatively furthering fair housing;
 - The PHA provides for review of its site-based waiting list policy to determine if it is consistent with civil rights laws and certifications, as specified in 24 CFR part 903.7(c)(1).
