Provo City Housing Authority
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Provo City Housing Authority (PCHA) has prepared this Agency Plan in accordance with Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 and all related HUD requirements.

The following Mission Statement directs PCHA's administration of its Section 8 and Public Housing Programs.

IT IS THE MISSION OF THE PROVO CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY TO ASSIST QUALIFIED LOW-INCOME FAMILIES, INDIVIDUALS, AND PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS TO BECOME ECONOMICALLY SELF-SUFFICIENT BY PROVIDING QUALITY AFFORDABLE HOUSING AND OTHER PERTINENT SERVICES IN ACCORDANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS, REGULATIONS, AND AGREEMENTS. THE PROVO CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY SHALL UTILIZE THE BROAD FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND TECHNICAL SERVICES AVAILABLE FROM FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE ENTERPRISE IN ACCOMPLISHING ITS OBJECTIVES .

The following outline defines our goals and objectives for the next five years.

Goal One: Manage the Public Housing Program effectively and cost-efficiently, thereby maintaining the Provo City Housing Authority's status as "High Performer".

Objectives:

1. PCHA shall promote a positive work environment and provide ongoing training opportunities for a skilled staff of employees to ensure friendly quality service and effective management of housing programs.
2. PCHA shall implement a progressive Maintenance Plan and bolster its unit inspection process, while paying special attention to improvement needs in Public Housing developments to achieve upper percentile scores under the physical assessment indicator in HUD's Public Housing Assessment System (PHAS) over the next five years.
3. PCHA shall work closely with its Resident Council and community partners to promote family self-sufficiency and identify and address housing needs over the next five years.

Goal Two: Provide a safe and secure living environment in the PCHA's public housing developments.

Objectives:

1. PCHA shall reduce criminal and drug-related criminal activity in and around its developments, as measured by statistical analysis, through its Public Housing Drug Elimination Program.
2. PCHA shall implement and refine a Safety and Crime Prevention Program in close cooperation with the local police department, thereby improving resident satisfaction with the level of safety and crime prevention efforts in Public Housing developments.
3. PCHA shall reduce evictions in Public Housing by 15% over the next five years through aggressive screening procedures.

Goal Three: Manage the PCHA's tenant-based program (Section 8) in an efficient and effective manner thereby qualifying as a high performer under the Section 8 Management Assessment Program (SEMAP).

Objectives:

1. PCHA shall implement a policy in the Administrative Plan to encourage participation in Section 8 by owners of units outside very-low income areas.
2. PCHA shall, when briefing program participants, provide information on housing opportunities outside very-low-income areas, and information about job opportunities, schools and services in these areas.

4. PCHA shall utilize its Family Self-Sufficiency Program and the local network of social service agencies to promote self-sufficiency and assist families in achieving independence from public assistances.

The goals and objectives outlined herein represent a carefully designed approach to fulfilling our mission over the next five years. Our Agency Plan is consistent with our jurisdiction's Consolidated Plan, and it provides a comprehensive array of policies, statements and measurable objectives, demonstrating our commitment to achieving our mission.

The PCHA endeavors to provide quality housing service to individuals and families in Provo City. To this end, we have included the following in our plan:

We have developed an effective Safety and Crime Prevention Plan in cooperation with our local police department that in conjunction with our Public Housing Drug Elimination Program will work to improve the level of safety in our Public Housing developments.

We have adopted aggressive screening policies to ensure that individuals who may pose a risk to our Public Housing developments are not admitted to our program.

We have implemented the Family Choice/Flat Rent Policy in Public Housing, which will provide working families an important option as an incentive to further their efforts toward self-sufficiency.

We have adopted a De-concentration Policy to help ensure the equitable distribution of families with varying income levels .

In an effort to encourage employment and advancement, we have adopted a policy that disregards (for one year) the income of a previously unemployed household member.

We are confident that with HUD's support and cooperation, these changes, along with all up-dated policies and directives contained in our Agency Plan, will result in measurable improvements to the overall administration of our housing programs.

C. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA’s strategy for addressing the housing needs of families in the jurisdiction and on the waiting list IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency’s reasons for choosing this strategy.

PROVO CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY NEEDS ASSESSMENT RESPONSE

The Provo City Housing Authority (PCHA) has worked closely with the Utah Valley Consortium of Cities and County to assess the affordable housing needs in our jurisdiction. PCHA's Annual and Five-year Plan, which outlines efforts to address housing needs, is certified as consistent with Utah Valley's 1995 Consolidated Plan (CP).

The 1995 CP thoroughly assessed and accurately projected significant shortages in affordable housing, along with lower than average vacancy rates in Provo City. The principle factors contributing to these circumstances involve rapid expansion and population growth. These conditions have persisted in our jurisdiction, resulting in increased homelessness and ongoing affordability issues affecting low-income individuals and families.

Comparisons between waiting list data contained in the 95 CP and current waiting list data show the number of families waiting for housing assistance have increased, while the average waiting period for housing assistance has remained fairly constant. A survey of income ranges among applicants reveals significant numbers of very low-income families comprising the majority of applicants on the Public Housing and Section 8 waiting lists. Based on this information, it is clear the need for affordable housing continues to be a challenge for lower income families in our jurisdiction. At the same time, PCHA recognizes that despite increased housing needs and increased numbers of families on its waiting lists, waiting periods for housing assistance remain steady.

PCHA has applied the information contained in the Housing Needs Section of the Consolidated Plan and the waiting list analysis to the development of our five-year goals and objectives. Due to limited resources, PCHA does not reasonably expect to meet all the serious housing needs in our jurisdiction. However, by endeavoring to manage its Public Housing and Section 8 programs efficiently and effectively, and ensuring quality service through a firm commitment to the people being served, the PCHA can be confident that low income families in Provo City will continue to recognize PCHA as the affordable housing of choice in the community.

The PCHA will continue to work closely with community partners and the Utah Valley Consortium of Cities and County to address housing needs in our jurisdiction. In addition, PCHA will seek grant opportunities made available by HUD through the next year by responding to Notices of Funding Availability in an effort to increase housing prospects for low-income families.

RESIDENT COMMENTS

PCHA representatives met with the Resident Council on May 23, 2000 to review the Agency Plan. Council members expressed unanimous support for the Plan and made the following comments and suggestions:

- 1) Question: “Can the PCHA do criminal back-ground checks on juveniles when screening prospective tenants?”

PCHA Response: Juvenile records are sealed in accordance with state law, and are therefore not accessible for back-ground checks. PCHA may however, ask for disclosure of criminal and/or arrest records of all household members on the intake application.

- 2) Suggestion: In reference to safety and security in Public Housing - “The Housing Authority should survey residents to determine where safety and security concerns need attention.”

PCHA Response: HUD conducts an independent survey of Residents annually to measure satisfaction with such things as safety and security, however, PCHA cannot, based on survey results, identify where concerns are coming from. Therefore, PCHA will conduct its own informal survey of residents through activities like Knock and Talk, which are undertaken by PCHA’s Drug Elimination Coordinator and the Police.

- 3) Question: “Can PCHA provide home ownership opportunities for housing participants?”

PCHA Response: At present, PCHA does not possess the necessary resources to create a home ownership program for housing participants, but will continue to explore opportunities for home ownership.

- 4) Suggestion: “PCHA should provide housing participants with information on how to pursue home ownership.”

PCHA Response: PCHA has, through its Family Self-Sufficiency Program, traditionally referred those who are serious about pursuing home ownership to the Community Action Agency, which conducts home ownership classes. PCHA will endeavor to provide more information and referral on home ownership to FSS participants.

- 5) Comment: “PCHA’s Agency Plan is well designed and has many positive changes for programs and services.”

PCHA Response: PCHA appreciates the input and coordination of the Resident Council through the process of creating the Agency Plan.

3. In what manner did the PHA address those comments? (select all that apply)

Attachment A: PCHA Deconcentration Policy

It is the PCHA's policy to provide for deconcentration of poverty and encourage income mixing by bringing higher income families into lower income developments and lower income families into higher income developments. Toward this end, we will skip families on the waiting list to reach other families with a lower or higher income when necessary to accomplish deconcentration. We will accomplish this in a uniform and non-discriminating manner.

Section 2: PHDEP Plan Goals and Budget

A. PHDEP Plan Summary

In the space below, summarize the PHDEP strategy to address the needs of the target population/target area(s). Your summary should briefly identify: the broad goals and objectives, the role of plan partners, and your system or process for monitoring and evaluating PHDEP-funded activities. This summary should not exceed 5-10 sentences.

The goals and objectives of PCHA's plan are focused on reducing/eliminating criminal and drug-related criminal problems in and around public housing developments by: increasing police services in public housing areas; collecting crime data used to track criminal and drug activity in public housing developments; conducting criminal background checks on housing applicants; coordinating activities that promote crime and drug awareness; employing a local community policing program that works directly with public housing residents; and organizing youth activities that provide recreational opportunities for public housing youth. Provo Police Department serves as an important partner by providing PCHA with law enforcement services, community policing, criminal background checks and police incident data. PCHA accurately measures the effectiveness of PHDEP activities through statistical analysis of crime data and police incident reports, and through survey data reflecting resident satisfaction with safety and security in their public housing communities.
