City of Long Beach Housing Authority
Summary of Five year Plan for Fiscal Years 2000 – 2001
And
Annual Plan for 2001 – 2002

The mission of the Long Beach Housing Authority is to provide high quality housing assistance for Long Beach's low-income households through:

- Effectively and efficiently utilizing resources
- Promoting a positive image through excellent customer service and clear and open communication
- Continually educating staff and clients.

Within the scope of the Housing Authority's mission, specific goals have been established:

- The Housing Authority will continue to apply for additional vouchers whenever the opportunity is presented.
- The Housing Authority will continue to improve management so as to better service customers.
- The Housing Authority will continue to reach out to additional property owners.
- The Housing Authority will continue to promote self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted household.

There is a great need for housing assistance in Long Beach. As of the 1990 census, over 19,000 households were at 30 percent or less of median income, and another 15,000 were at 50 percent or less of median income. Median income is currently at $54,500.00 for a family of four; 30 percent of median would be $16,350.00. A typical rent for a two bedroom apartment in the central part of Long Beach is $731.00. If a family of four has an income at 30 percent of median, the family could not pay rent and pay for other necessities as well.

The Housing Authority's waiting list was opened in 1997, and still contains families.

The Housing Authority intends to address these needs utilizing the following strategies:

- Maximizing the number of affordable units available by establishing payment standards that will enable families to rent in as broad a market area as possible.
- Marketing the program to landlords to make the program acceptable to them.
- Within means available, provide counseling to the extremely low-income applicants who have a difficult time finding affordable housing, even with their voucher.

Additionally, the housing authority attempts to address the needs of certain segments of the local population by having adopted certain preferences for selection from the waiting list:

- Veterans and veterans' family members.
- Working families and those unable to work because of age or disabilities.

- Residents of and those who work in the City of Long Beach.

The Housing Authority will explore and pursue a Section 8 homeownership option.

IN REFERENCE TO 5-YEAR PLAN

Help for family self sufficient participants in finding and most probably giving a statement or certificate of good standing. This will help clients have a better chance to rent the house or apartment of their choice. Simply because of the respect for reputation. Statements of recommendations such as the following:

--If nothing else, just a word of good charcter statement, for the person as a section 8 tenant, such as (this client has lived in theApartments, in Long Beach for several years with good standing, both with the housing authority department and landlord or owner...

We proudly recommend.....who is a citizen to you, because he or she has a pass background as an outstanding tenant in the community.

In order to help this client maintain upward bound career, employment, and vocation and career goals and to help in getting a solid foundation of self sufficiency to the family.

Why? Because we believe that the tenant will continue to be an attribute to the community in which they live.

QUESTION:

What can the housing authority do to help?

For families with children who need an authority figure with a voice that will be heard because the family needs more room for the children to develop while parent or parents or working and they need economic living quality equal to that of which will help families also in their pride and outlook because of the welfare reform. Helping families to be sufficient in this area may never happen, unless someone does something different.

There are often empty housing seen in the Long Beach area, which have had a For Sale signs on them, for sometimes, an entire year. There is one, in particular, that says section 8 not welcome, or not allowed. We don't know, unless we ask the landlord.

Perhaps, because of the conduct of past section 8 client or tenant, or because of housing requirements. I have personally, have not found the Housing Authority moving requirements, etc., to be extreme.

More that likely if a FSS client, or tenant, who has been given a good word statement or certificate of good standing as a good reference record will have more security in the chance for adequate and affordable housing, in the area they want to live in.

The quality of life, would improve and the chance of credibility for eligible families looking for suitable living. With help the FSS client can stand against the bad section 8 reputations. Some tenants deserve to get good housing because they work for it. They need authority figures, on your side as well, to give them a push towards better living, rather than being lumped into a stigma as a tenants into drug abuse, are being seen, automatically, as a property abuser.

I'm willing to volunteer to help towards this mission as a goal.

What percentage of the housing tenants who want help to move, by getting a good tenant statement, would abuse that right.

The members of the Residents Advisory Board made the following suggestions and comments:

- They asked that we investigate reported slumlords. We informed the group of the City's very intensive program to do just that.
- It was suggested that we have joint conferences with tenants and landlords. We informed the group that that the relationship between landlord and tenant should be as normal as possible. We do have an ombudsman who does assist when there are problems between parties.
- More housing is needed for the handicapped and the disabled.
- We need to educate landlords about tenants. We informed the committee that we regularly send newsletters to the owners, and we also invite all new landlords in for a briefing. We try to let them know about our tenants' special needs.
- We need to educate tenants as to the program's rule and regulations.
- One member suggested that when it is time to renew a lease, that it be renewed for another year.
- It was suggested that we build more affordable housing for Section 8 tenants.
- It was pointed out that the time required finalizing a lease and contract is excessive. We agreed and told the group that one of our greatest priorities is to speed up that process.
- It was suggested that we invite participants to volunteer at the Housing Authority. More help might be the solution to the lack of manpower.
- It was suggested that we give tenants and landlords a written document, telling that that it is OK to enter a unit, after inspection and rent negotiation, but before contract is finalized. We will review this option.
- Following this question, it was suggested that we clarify our policy on move-ins.

- They asked that we more frequently updated the listing of available units. We will look at doing just that.
- We talked about credit check scams, but told the committee that that's outside of our purview, other than warning prospective tenants of these abuses.
- They wanted the time for an inspection to be narrowed down. We told them that a telephone call in the morning would give them a narrower time frame.

3. In what manner did the PHA address those comments? (select all that apply)

- Considered comments, but determined that no changes to the PHA Plan were necessary.
- The PHA changed portions of the PHA Plan in response to comments
List changes below:
- Other: (list below)

Housing Authority of the City of Long Beach
Summary of Five year Plan for Fiscal Years 2000 – 2001
And
Annual Plan for 2001 – 2002

The mission of the Long Beach Housing Authority is to provide high quality housing assistance for Long Beach's low-income households through:

- Effectively and efficiently utilizing resources.
- Promoting a positive image through excellent customer service and clear and open communication.
- Continually educating staff and clients.

Within the scope of the Housing Authority's mission, specific goals have been established:

- The Housing Authority will continue to apply for additional vouchers whenever the opportunity is presented.
- The Housing Authority will continue to improve management to better service customers.
- The Housing Authority will continue to reach out to additional property owners.
- The Housing Authority will continue to promote self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted household.

There is a great need for housing assistance in Long Beach. As of the 1990 census, over 19,000 households were at 30 percent or less of median income, and another 15,000 were at 50 percent or less of median income. Median income is currently at $54,500.00 for a family of four; 30 percent of median would be $16,350.00. A typical rent for a two-bedroom apartment in the central part of Long Beach is $731.00. If a family of four has an income at 30 percent of median, the family could not pay rent and pay for other necessities as well.

The Housing Authority's waiting list was opened in 1997, and still contains families.

The Housing Authority intends to address these needs utilizing the following strategies:

- Maximizing the number of affordable units available by establishing payment standards that will enable families to rent in as broad a market area as possible.
- Marketing the program to landlords to make the program acceptable to them.
- Within means available, provide counseling to the extremely low-income applicants who have a difficult time finding affordable housing, even with their voucher.

Additionally, the Housing Authority attempts to address the needs of certain segments of the local population by having adopted certain preferences for selection from the waiting list:

- Veterans and veterans' family members.
- Working families and those unable to work because of age or disabilities.
- Residents of and those who work in the City of Long Beach.

The Housing Authority will explore and pursue a Section 8 homeownership option.

Housing Authority of the City of Long Beach
Resumen de el Plan Fiscal de Cinco Años 2000-2004
Y
Plan Annual Para 2001-2002

La misión de Long Beach Housing Authority es proveer una asistencia de vivienda de alta calidad para familias de bajos recursos por medio de:

- Utilizando recursos disponibles de una manera eficiente
- Promoviendo un imagen positivo a través de excelente servicio al cliente y comunicación clara y directa
- Continuamente educando al personal y clientes

Dentro de el ámbito de ésta misión Housing Authority a establecido metas que incluyen:

- Housing Authority continuará solicitando vouchers adicionales cada vez que se presente la oportunidad
- Housing Authority continuará haciendo mejoramientos al cuerpo de administración para mejor servir al cliente
- Housing Authority continuará tratando de atraer dueños de propiedad adicionales
- Housing Authority continuará promoviendo el desarrollo de autosuficiente y bienes para clientes recibiendo asistencia

La ciudad de Long Beach tiene gran necesidad de asistencia de vivienda. El censo de 1990, reporto que mas de 19,000 establecimientos domésticos (viviendas) ganaban menos de 30% de el punto medio de ingresos, mientras que 15,000 ganaban el 50% o menos. Actualmente, el punto medio de ingresos para una familia de cuatro esta a $54,500.00, queriendo decir que 30% seria $16,350.00. Tipicamente el costo para rentar un apartamento de dos recámaras en la parte central de Long Beach es $731.00. Si los ingresos de una familia de cuatro estan al 30% de el punto de medio, no podrian pagar el costo de la renta y necesidades adicionales a la vez.

La lista de espera de Housing Authority estuvo abierta en 1997, desde entonces hay familias que siguen en la lista y esperando asistencia.

Housing Authority intenta resolver estas necesidades utilizando las estrategias siguientes:

- Haciendo disponible la máxima cantidad de unidades por medio de establecer un nivel de pagos que ayudaria a familias acceder a un mercado amplio para poder rentar
- Reorganizar el mercadeo de el programa, haciendolo mas vendible a dueños de propiedad
- Solicitar vouchers adicionales cada vez que se presente la oportunidad
- Dentro de medios disponibles, proveer consultatorio a clientes de excepcionalmente bajos recursos que tengan dificultades en encontrar vivienda, aun cuando tienen su voucher.

Adicionalmente, Housing Authority tratara de responder a las necesidades de ciertos sectores de la comunidad adoptando la práctica de seleccionar nombres de la lista de espera, dando preferencia a:

- Veteranos y sus miembros de familia
- Familias que trabajan y personas mayor de edad o con incapacidades
- Personas que vivan o trabajen, actualmente, en la ciudad de Long Beach.

Housing Authority seguira explorando una opción para compra de vivienda dentro del programa Section 8.
