RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD MEETING
Augusta Housing Authority
October 12, 2000

Staff Present: Victoria Watkins, PHA Director
Catherine Austin, FSS Coordinator
Residents Present: Merrienne Alward (term: 2000-2002)
Marina Lauzon (term: 2000-2002)
Resident Absent: Joseph Roderick (term: 2000-2002)

The Resident Advisory Board met at the main office of Augusta Housing Authority on October 12, 2000. The director reviewed the purpose of the Advisory Board, and discussed the difference between HUD regulations and PHA policy. She also gave a brief overview of the PURPOSE of the Administrative Plan and the Comprehensive Plan.

Following are the comments of the residents and the responses of the director to those comments.

Comment: How can residents get the FMR's and utility allowances so that they will know if a unit is affordable?

Response: The FMR's are available on the web for anyone's use. You can also ask for them in the main office. The utility allowances are also available in this office. However, FMR's and utility allowances are not the only factors in determining whether a unit can be rented. We must also take into account the affordability of the unit and determine if the rent is reasonable for the location and the condition of the unit. This cannot be done until we determine if a unit is "affordable" for a family and an inspector looks at the unit.

It is always advisable to set up an appointment with our staff if you are considering a move.

Comment: It doesn't seem fair that people can claim a "0" income! No one can live without some money. Why don't they have to pay a small amount towards rent?

Response: We must base our rent calculation on the information that the tenant reports. We cannot go beyond what they tell us. They have to sign a form that states they have "0" income and they are recertified three times a year, which is a change we instituted in this year's Administrative Plan. We only have about 4 tenants who are claiming "0" income out of 500. Some individuals survive on Food Stamps and the charity of churches and other non-profits.

We encourage landlords and other tenants to report fraud to the agency. We then investigate the claims as soon as possible. If a tenant is found to be fraudulent, they must either pay back what they owe the agency or their name/s are put on a state-wide list and no other PHA will rent to them.

Comment: Are you planning on starting a Homeownership Program?

Response: We are a small agency that has experienced a lot of growth in the past year. We have also moved our offices, hired new staff and purchased a new networked computer system. In addition, HUD has made major changes in the Section 8 Program, so our efforts have been focused on adjusting to all these changes.

However, we have had preliminary talks with the Maine State Housing Authority who will probably be the first agency in the area to implement the Homeownership Program. They have indicated that they may work with the smaller housing authorities in developing a collaborative effort and help us with planning and financial linkages so necessary to the success of a Homeownership Program.

Comment: Do you have preferences for elderly and disabled?

Response: We have had to change our "singles preference" to "no preference" because we are not allowed, under law, to differentiate between any individual. The "singles preference" would include disabled, elderly, homeless and any low income individual over 18 years of age.

However, we have addressed the needs of the disabled community in Augusta by applying for and receiving dedicated vouchers just for this population. We have also The elderly are served by the Fair Share vouchers and the complexes in the area. MSHA issues vouchers to the homeless in the area. So, although there are waiting lists for any subsidy, we feel that all low-income populations are being served by some agent in our area.

Comment: What do you do when people come from out-of-state?

Response: We have the choice of billing the originating housing authority or absorbing the tenant by giving them one of our own vouchers. We choose to bill the other housing authority because if we gave a port a voucher that would mean one less voucher available for some family on our own waiting list.

Comment: I think you do a great job with the small staff you have and the number of families you serve!

Response: Thank you. In order to relieve some of the workload and improve our service, we will be adding a new inspector to our staff by 2001 and, as we lease up more units, we may add one more staff person. Staff additions are noted in the Annual Plan.
