C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

The Washington County Housing and Redevelopment Authority defines a substantial deviation to the 5-year Plan as follows:

- any changes to the PHA overall mission
- any changes to the goals or objectives that affect services to the residents, or significant changes to the PHA's financial positions
- A complete revision or abandonment of one or more of the components of a PHA's 5-year Plan.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

The Washington County Housing and Redevelopment Authority defines a significant amendment or modification to the Annual Plan as a change in the plans or policies of the PHA that require formal approval by the Washington County Housing and Redevelopment Authority Board of Commissioners. It is understood that the Washington County Housing and Redevelopment Authority may not adopt the amendment or modification until the PHA has duly called a meeting of its Board of Directors (or similar governing body) and the meeting, at which the amendment or modification is adopted, is open to the public. Further, the Washington County Housing and Redevelopment Authority understands that it may not implement the amendment or modification, until notification of the amendment or modification is provided to HUD and approved by HUD in accordance with HUD's plan review procedures, as provided in Statute 903.23.
