Statement of Progress in Meeting the 5-Year Plan Mission and Goals

Goal: Expand the supply of assisted housing

Apply for additional vouchers.

The City of New Rochelle applied for and has been awarded 25 Fair Share Vouchers to assist low-income families in obtaining decent, safe and sanitary housing. The funding is $212,175.00 of which 20% must be used to absorb families for which we are currently billing another PHA and 20% to house disabled families.

Provide voucher mobility counseling

The City of New Rochelle has entered into a cooperative agreement with Westchester County Section 8 and various local Section 8 offices within the county to facilitate the transfer of Section 8 families within the county.

Goal: Increase assisted housing choices

Conduct outreach efforts to potential voucher landlords

Hap contracts were signed with six landlord/owners who are accepting Section 8 payments for the first time.

Increase voucher payment standards

Although this was not stated as a goal in the 5-Year Plan, our payment standards were raised to 100% of the fair market rent, thus increasing assisted housing choices

Goal: Promote self-sufficiency and asset development to families and individuals

Increase the number and percentage of employed persons in assisted families.

Twenty-four families that were receiving Public Assistance during 2000 are now working and no longer dependant on AFDC in 2001.

The Mayor announced the Public Hearing and read the notice of the public hearing which was published in the Journal News the official newspaper on January 19, 2001.

One person (Richard Hobbs) registered to speak. His comments pertained to his experience with the Section 8 Program while trying to assist his mother(a Section 8 tenant). Mr. Hobbs was upset because his mother's apartment did not meet HQS minimum standards and thought the City of New Rochelle should have painted the apartment. He felt the City did not work hard enough to resolve his mother's problem. He was thankful for the landlord who let his mother live in the apartment for $125 per month until he found another apartment.
