The Resident Advisory Board of Liberty County submitted the following comments:

1. We, the Resident Advisory Board of Liberty County will strive to ensure that all clients uphold all responsibilities. We will meet periodically with different client groups and landlords in order to discuss and resolve any problem areas.

2. We will strive to ensure that drug and alcohol usage is eliminated, as much as possible.

3. We request the Liberty County PHA request an allocation of Section 8 Vouchers from U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. It is our belief that our Waiting List is continually growing and although the PHA has initiated a Non-profit Organization, we see a further need for housing in our community.

4. We recommend that the Liberty County Housing Authority publish a HOW TO BOOKLET. It is imperative that Section 8 clients realize we are judged by our actions, differently than other segments of the community.

It is the mission of the Liberty County Housing Authority under the LCHA Non-Profit to float our own bonds, therefore making us more self sufficient. We are working with Wells Fargo Bank of Houston through there real estate group to secure the financing of the bonds.

Our short time plan is to build 33 elderly units in the City of Hardin at a cost of approximately $1,700,000. We also have plans to build between 40 and 50 duplex units in the City of Cleveland. All of these planned units are in non-impacted areas. Our long range plans will include the City of Liberty and the City of Ames.
