ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

Organizational meetings have begun to build a base of interested parties to meet housing needs of Monroe County. Significant industrial and service growth has begun with more anticipated. The core group of individuals is motivated to prepare adequate housing for all segments of the population with proper planning. The Monroe County Housing Authority plans to coordinate efforts of interested agencies and organizations to plan and address housing needs. The county is experiencing rapid growth along with other areas of Western Wisconsin. We hope to learn from the mistakes of others & cooperatively plan infrastructures, utilize and upgrade existing housing stock and help address specific needs of military families unique to the area.

We plan to maximize the number of affordable units available by supporting the construction of one bedroom units and larger three and four bedroom units. This would also be achieved by upgrading existing housing stock and strengthening neighborhoods.

We will increase utilization of Housing Choice Voucher funds to stabilize the financial status of the program that has been operating tenuously in the past years.

C. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA’s strategy for addressing the housing needs of families in the jurisdiction and on the waiting list IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency’s reasons for choosing this strategy.

Vouchers are available and there is no waiting list for the program, because there is a lack of rental housing stock that meets Housing Quality Standards. The housing authority will do more marketing to landlords not participating in the program, review payment standards to enable lease-up and create a housing data base to ensure access to affordable housing in non-concentrated poverty areas. The Monroe County

Apartment Association , a chapter of the Wisconsin Apartment Association has recently been formed. Membership and assistance will be provided by the housing authority. These strategies were selected because of small staff and funding.
